STEWARDSHIP MINUTE

January – where reflection meets fresh motivation. As you step into 2026, let it be a reminder that you get another opportunity. A new year is a great place to renew a commitment to manage all resources for God's greater purpose. All resources are time, talents, treasures, health, relationships and the Gospel. A key theme includes God is the owner, you are the steward. Because you are designed in God's image, you are happiest and most fulfilled when serving and giving.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

If you scrub your hands of sin and refuse to entertain evil in your home, you'll be able to face the world unashamed and keep a firm grip on life, guiltless and fearless. You'll forget your troubles; they'll be like old, faded photographs. Your world will be washed in sunshine, every shadow dispersed by dayspring. Full of hope, you'll relax, confident again; you'll look around, sit back, and take it easy.

A Season of Connection, Growth, and Renewal

One of the greatest gifts of being part of a church community is discovering that we are never meant to walk alone. As we begin this new year together, First Christian Church is entering a season rich with opportunities to gather, learn, heal, and grow—both in our faith and in our relationships with one another.

We are excited to begin the year with a special event on Saturday, January 11 at 3:00 p.m., when we will host a book signing and conversation with author Dr. Linda Burks, featuring her book Navigating Transitions: Embracing Change and Finding Purpose. This event is open to everyone and offers a meaningful way to reflect on seasons of change—both the ones we choose and the ones that arrive unexpectedly.

Following the book signing, a church-wide discussion group centered on Navigating Transitions will begin on January 25 at 3:00 p.m. The group will meet every other week until the book is completed. If you would like to participate, the book is available for $17.00, and we ask that you call the church office by January 19 so we can order copies in time. This group is open to anyone who feels called to explore how God meets us in moments of change and helps us find purpose in new chapters of life.

In addition, beginning February 1, we will launch another important group focused on grief and healing, using Megan Devine's book It's OK That You're Not OK. This group will meet on the alternating weeks between the Navigating Transitions sessions, creating a rhythm where one week focuses on transition and purpose, and the next offers space to name grief, loss, and the complex emotions that come with them. Together, these two groups reflect our commitment to walking with one another through life's most tender seasons.

Our ongoing studies continue as well. We are still meeting weekly for our Tuesday morning Bible study, currently journeying through the book of Hosea, with the hope of finishing before Lent. After that, we will turn our attention to the prophetic voice of Amos, continuing our exploration of God's call to justice, faithfulness, and love.

We are also excited to begin a new series for women. Starting January 8 at 10:00 a.m., Pam Lightfoot will lead Bad Girls of the Bible, a thoughtful and engaging study that looks at the lives of women in Scripture who were complicated, courageous, and deeply human. All women are invited to attend.

These groups—and so many others—reflect something deeply important about who we are as a church. Whether it's Men's Ministry breakfasts, weekly studies, youth group on Sunday afternoons, Grace After Sundown on Sunday evenings at 6:00 p.m., our 8:15 and 10:30 a.m. worship services, or Disciples Kids on Wednesdays, the goal is never just the activity itself. It's about being together. It's about building relationships, sharing stories, praying, laughing, listening, and discovering God's presence in community.

The breakfast matters—but not because of the food. The study matters—but not just because of the material. What truly matters is the time we spend with one another, creating spaces where people of all ages and stages of life can connect with each other and with the divine. Our hope is that at any point in the week, and at any season of life, there is a place for you here.

Looking ahead, you may observe some noticeable updates to our facility. In the upcoming months, contractors will be installing new carpet and flooring throughout the church. While construction may present temporary inconveniences, we encourage you to view these enhancements as part of our ongoing commitment to maintaining and improving the spaces that support worship, fellowship, education, and care within our community.

This work is about more than flooring; it is about preparing our shared home for the future. It is about creating welcoming, safe, and beautiful spaces for generations to come. We hope you will share in the excitement as these updates begin to take shape.

There is so much happening at First Christian Church, and each piece—each group, each gathering, each improvement—points to a living, active community grounded in faith and hope. Wherever you find yourself right now, know that there is a place for you, and we are grateful to be walking this journey together.

Shalom, Joshua

Thank you...

Dear Family,
There are no words that can truly express our gratitude for your love, prayers, & support during our "worst of times." While we were at the hospital, I learned a new term- "chosen family." No one could have a better chosen family than we have in you. Thank you for standing with us as we begin to adjust to this change in our lives. I am especially grateful for Josh, who walked us through this difficult time & led such a beautiful service for our Nicole. Thank you for all your love & support.

Seasonal Movement:

- Epiphany: Light revealed in word and life
- Lent: Honest repentance, deep trust, new vision
- Easter: Resurrection shaping daily discipleship
- Pentecost: Spirit-empowered witness

Core Questions Guiding the Season:

- Who do we trust in the wilderness?
- What does new life actually look like?
- How does resurrection change ordinary life?
- Where is the Spirit sending us next?

Dear Beloved Partners in Theological Education,

Grace and peace to you from our community at Phillips Theological Seminary. In this Advent season, we write with profound gratitude for your faithful support. Your partnership makes possible the formation of ministers, chaplains, educators, and nonprofit leaders who will proclaim good news and work for God's justice in the world with integrity, compassion, and hope.

Celebrating This Year's Impact. Thanks to your generosity, we have:

- Welcomed President Dr. F. Douglas Powe Jr., who is committed to Phillips being a place of deep learning, faithful leadership, and global impact
- Welcomed 67 new students representing diverse backgrounds, traditions, and callings
- Served 168 students by the Center for Lay Ministry Training (CMLT) from a wide range of backgrounds and traditions
- Given every student a financial scholarship at 80% to 100% to ensure theological education remains accessible to those called to ministry regardless of financial means
- Launched the Seminary Scholars Program that offers eight full-tuition scholarships and a $21,000 annual living stipend for those moving to Tulsa, as well as mentorship, community and professional development
- Launched the Continuing Education Leadership Development series through CMLT that offers fully asynchronous learning to everyone in the Church and beyond on topics like Stewardship and Financial Literacy with more to come in 2026
- Built Bedford House which will open in January, offering gathering space, short-term lodging, and greater hospitality for students and guests

Your Continued Partnership. We invite you to deepen your connection with Phillips:

- Share the enclosed thank you (or use the QR code for a digital copy) in your communications with your congregation
- Attend one of our annual events featuring theologians, practitioners and artists or access one of the CMLT education offerings or a course
- Pray for our students, faculty, and staff

Your congregation's support, whether through financial gifts or prayer, is transforming lives and renewing the church. Thank you for believing in our students and their callings and for investing in theological education that honors questions and embraces diversity. If you would like resources or more information about Phillips to share with your congregations, we are glad to provide them. May God continue to bless your ministry and ours as we walk this path together.

In gratitude and partnership,

Rev. Jenny Wynn
