Vol. 57 January 2026

Getting Serious! About our Youth and about our Goal

As a congregation, what are we trying to do?

Empowered by the Gospel of our Savior and guided by the “Rooted” vision, we have two parallel endeavors going on. Next month, we will discuss our “Engrafting Plan for Organizational Clarity” of the Rooted Vision as we launch the next phase of Personal Mission Statements. This month, we focus on our 20-year Goal as we now enter year 3 of this goal. “By our Centennial Celebration (2043), we will cultivate a new generation of deeply-rooted disciples who will offer Gospel-centered ministry to our community for the next 100 years.” Indeed, our Rooted vision leads us to be a church and school the Chain-of-Lakes Region of Polk County can count on. Even amidst trying and confusing times, we will effectively minister the love of our Savior long into the future.

So how are we doing? Exactly, what are we doing to accomplish this vision and attain this far-reaching goal? We have sought to get to know one another across the generations, exceeding our first-year objective of making over 800 cross-generational connections in our 80th year of ministry. Last year, our leadership began discovering and exploring Seven Practices of Congregations with Healthy Youth Ministry. This year we delve into the first four practices. Please make an effort to memorize these practices as we preach about them next month.

Congregations with healthy youth ministries have:

- Warmth, Grace, and Challenge (week of Jan. 18)
- Supportive Adults (Week of Jan. 25)
- Engaged Parents (Week of Feb. 1)
- Opportunities to Serve and Lead (Week of Feb. 8)

Pastor Steve Braun has written wonderful SMALL GROUP BIBLE STUDIES focusing on these practices. He’s chosen stories from the Bible that illustrate these practices for us to discuss, apply to our own lives, and live out in congregational ministry. Our effectiveness in accomplishing the Lord’s work comes from the Lord Himself, who not only directs us in His Word, but empowers us through His Word to do His work upon this earth. Let yourself be energized and equipped by God’s powerful Word. Sign up for a Small Group. (see page 5)

God’s Word

Throughout the Old and New Testaments, God gives direction on how we are to care for and teach young people the ways of God. In Deuteronomy 6, God commanded the people of Israel how to teach their children as they lived from day to day. In the Scriptures, we see young people like Samuel and David stepping forward in faith to do great things as they are empowered by God’s Spirit. In Luke 19, Jesus tells His disciples to let the children come to Him and not get in their way or make it hard for them. We see both young and old sharing the Good News of salvation in Jesus in the epistles of the New Testament.

A Sad Statistic

Unfortunately, there are fewer and fewer young people found in Christian congregations today. In our own LCMS church body, “the reality is that we have not retained the majority of young people who started off in our churches for several generations now. We know from LCMS's annual statistics that we are currently retaining 60-70% of our young people in the LCMS from Baptism to Confirmation.

We retain around 34 percent of those from Confirmation into young adulthood. That means we retain around one in every five young people we baptize through to young adulthood." (p. 20 Seven Practices )

This does – and should – break our hearts. Yet, we cannot stay in a state of lament. With the power of the Holy Spirit, we turn to God's Word and the Christian Community, and we strive to do better. (This is why we are doing these small group studies!)

You Can Help

One way to change the statistics is by seeking to develop a healthy youth ministry. WE EACH PLAY A ROLE by embracing our vocations as parents, supportive adults, and congregational and youth ministry leaders. With God's help, we continue to put forth our best efforts, even when we don't see how God is working and using us in a young person's life. God can and will continue to grow the seeds of faith He plants from you and me.

The first four of the practices that we share this month focus on the opportunities, people, and environment of the congregation and home. Rather than focusing on programs or networks, these practices concentrate on qualities our congregation can develop as we seek to accomplish our 20-year goal. Please PRAY for this endeavor. God wants us to pray and promises to answer our prayers, especially prayers that are in line with what He wants. God wants our efforts in this holy task! So pray for today's young people. Pray for parents. And pray for all of us to be our best in accomplishing God's purposes in our time.

Pastor Braun and I thank you for taking this endeavor to heart.

– Pastor C. Reich

Construction Plans

Work on the long-awaited canopies is finally underway! Covered entrances into our facilities were promised a campaign ago. Things changed when we decided to build a whole new parking lot on the front of our campus – and when the opportunity arose for us to purchase the building and property across the street. Those things have been accomplished and now we set to work on covered walk-ways and entrances.

The old and deteriorated canopies and sidewalks were removed after Thanksgiving and in early December. Footers for the canopy's columns will be next, then the canopies, and, finally, concrete and sidewalks. It will be beautiful, safe, functional, and long-lasting. This is at least a 4-month project – hopefully completed by Easter, but May is more likely.

Remember, our goals and plans are far-reaching. As long as the Lord has people in the Chain-of-Lakes Region, we seek to be ministering to them from central Winter Haven until our Lord's return. We are positioning our facilities with those things in mind. Special gifts to this campaign are always accepted. Contributors may choose to direct their contributions to capital expenditures or to ministry operating expenses. We recommend simply giving to the Rooted Vision which funds our total ministry of making deep-rooted disciples and capital improvements to our campus.

Thanks to all for your generous support thus far. With God's help, YOU have made this happen.

Text: Public domain*

This hymn may not be as well-known as other Christmas hymns and carols, but its text was composed with celebrations of the New Year taking place within the twelve days of Christmas. The author, Christian Keimann, was the principal of a German school, where he wrote sacred dramas to fulfill one of the requirements of his position. This hymn was included within the play titled “The newborn Jesus, revealed to the shepherds and wise men,” and was published in 1646. Some time after the publication of this play, the hymn became a popular hymn for use after Christmas Day and before the Epiphany of our Lord (January 6).

Here in this text we find Keimann calling us to make a joyful noise to the Lord because He has done wondrous things. (That sounds very similar to Psalm 98:4, our theme verse for 2025-26!) With that in mind, Keimann continues on into the refrain, writing “Joy, O joy...Christ has done away with sadness!” In the second stanza we find the reason for the season: Christ our Savior chooses to come and lie in a manger helpless. He chooses to hang on the cross helpless: All to redeem our souls. For this we have great joy: “Christ has done away with sadness!” We pray: “Jesus, guard and guide [us]...Grant [us] holy peace, a glad new year!”

Happy New Year! May God bless you all in 2026!

What is a new year without resolutions? Do you know about resolutions? They are things that people plan to do in the New Year. What resolutions have you heard people making?

Most resolutions are things that people hope to do to make their life happier or healthier. Making resolutions is one thing. But what is the hard part? It takes work to carry out resolutions. Often, it takes sacrifice. For example, if someone wants to lose 20 pounds in 2026, what must they give up?

Have you ever thought of resolutions having anything to do with God? God wants the best for us, and so it's good to make resolutions that improve our lives. But it's easy to forget other people when we make resolutions. It's easy to forget plans for serving God and others.

When God chose Solomon to be king of Israel, Solomon made some resolutions for his new life as king. His resolution came in the form of prayer. He prayed, "Give your servant...an understanding mind to govern your people, that I may discern between good and evil..." (1 Kings 3:9). Solomon's resolution was to be the best king possible for God's people. Do you think that would take hard work?

Do you agree that many of our own resolutions should be about how to help others be happier and healthier? We can make those kinds of resolutions, because when Jesus died to take away our sins, Jesus also gave us the power to serve others as He served people during His time on earth. As you think about the New Year, make it a priority to serve others, and do so in a way that shows them you are a child of God.

Our Pre-K students are loving their monthly classroom visits to the Kindergarten classes for kindergarten readiness! This month, the students learned about Jesus' birth and the star that shone that night. They then practiced writing the letter S together for "star."
