

1 Peter 1

¹Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ,
To the exiles of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia.

²who have been chosen and destined by God the Father...

1 Peter 1

² ...and sanctified by the Spirit to be obedient to Jesus Christ
and to be sprinkled with his blood:
May grace and peace be yours in abundance.

1 Peter 1

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ!
By his great mercy
he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

1 Peter 1

⁴ and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you,
⁵ who are being protected by the power of God through faith for salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

1 Peter 1

⁶ In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials,

1 Peter 1

⁷so that the genuineness of your faith
—being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire—
may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.

1 Peter 1

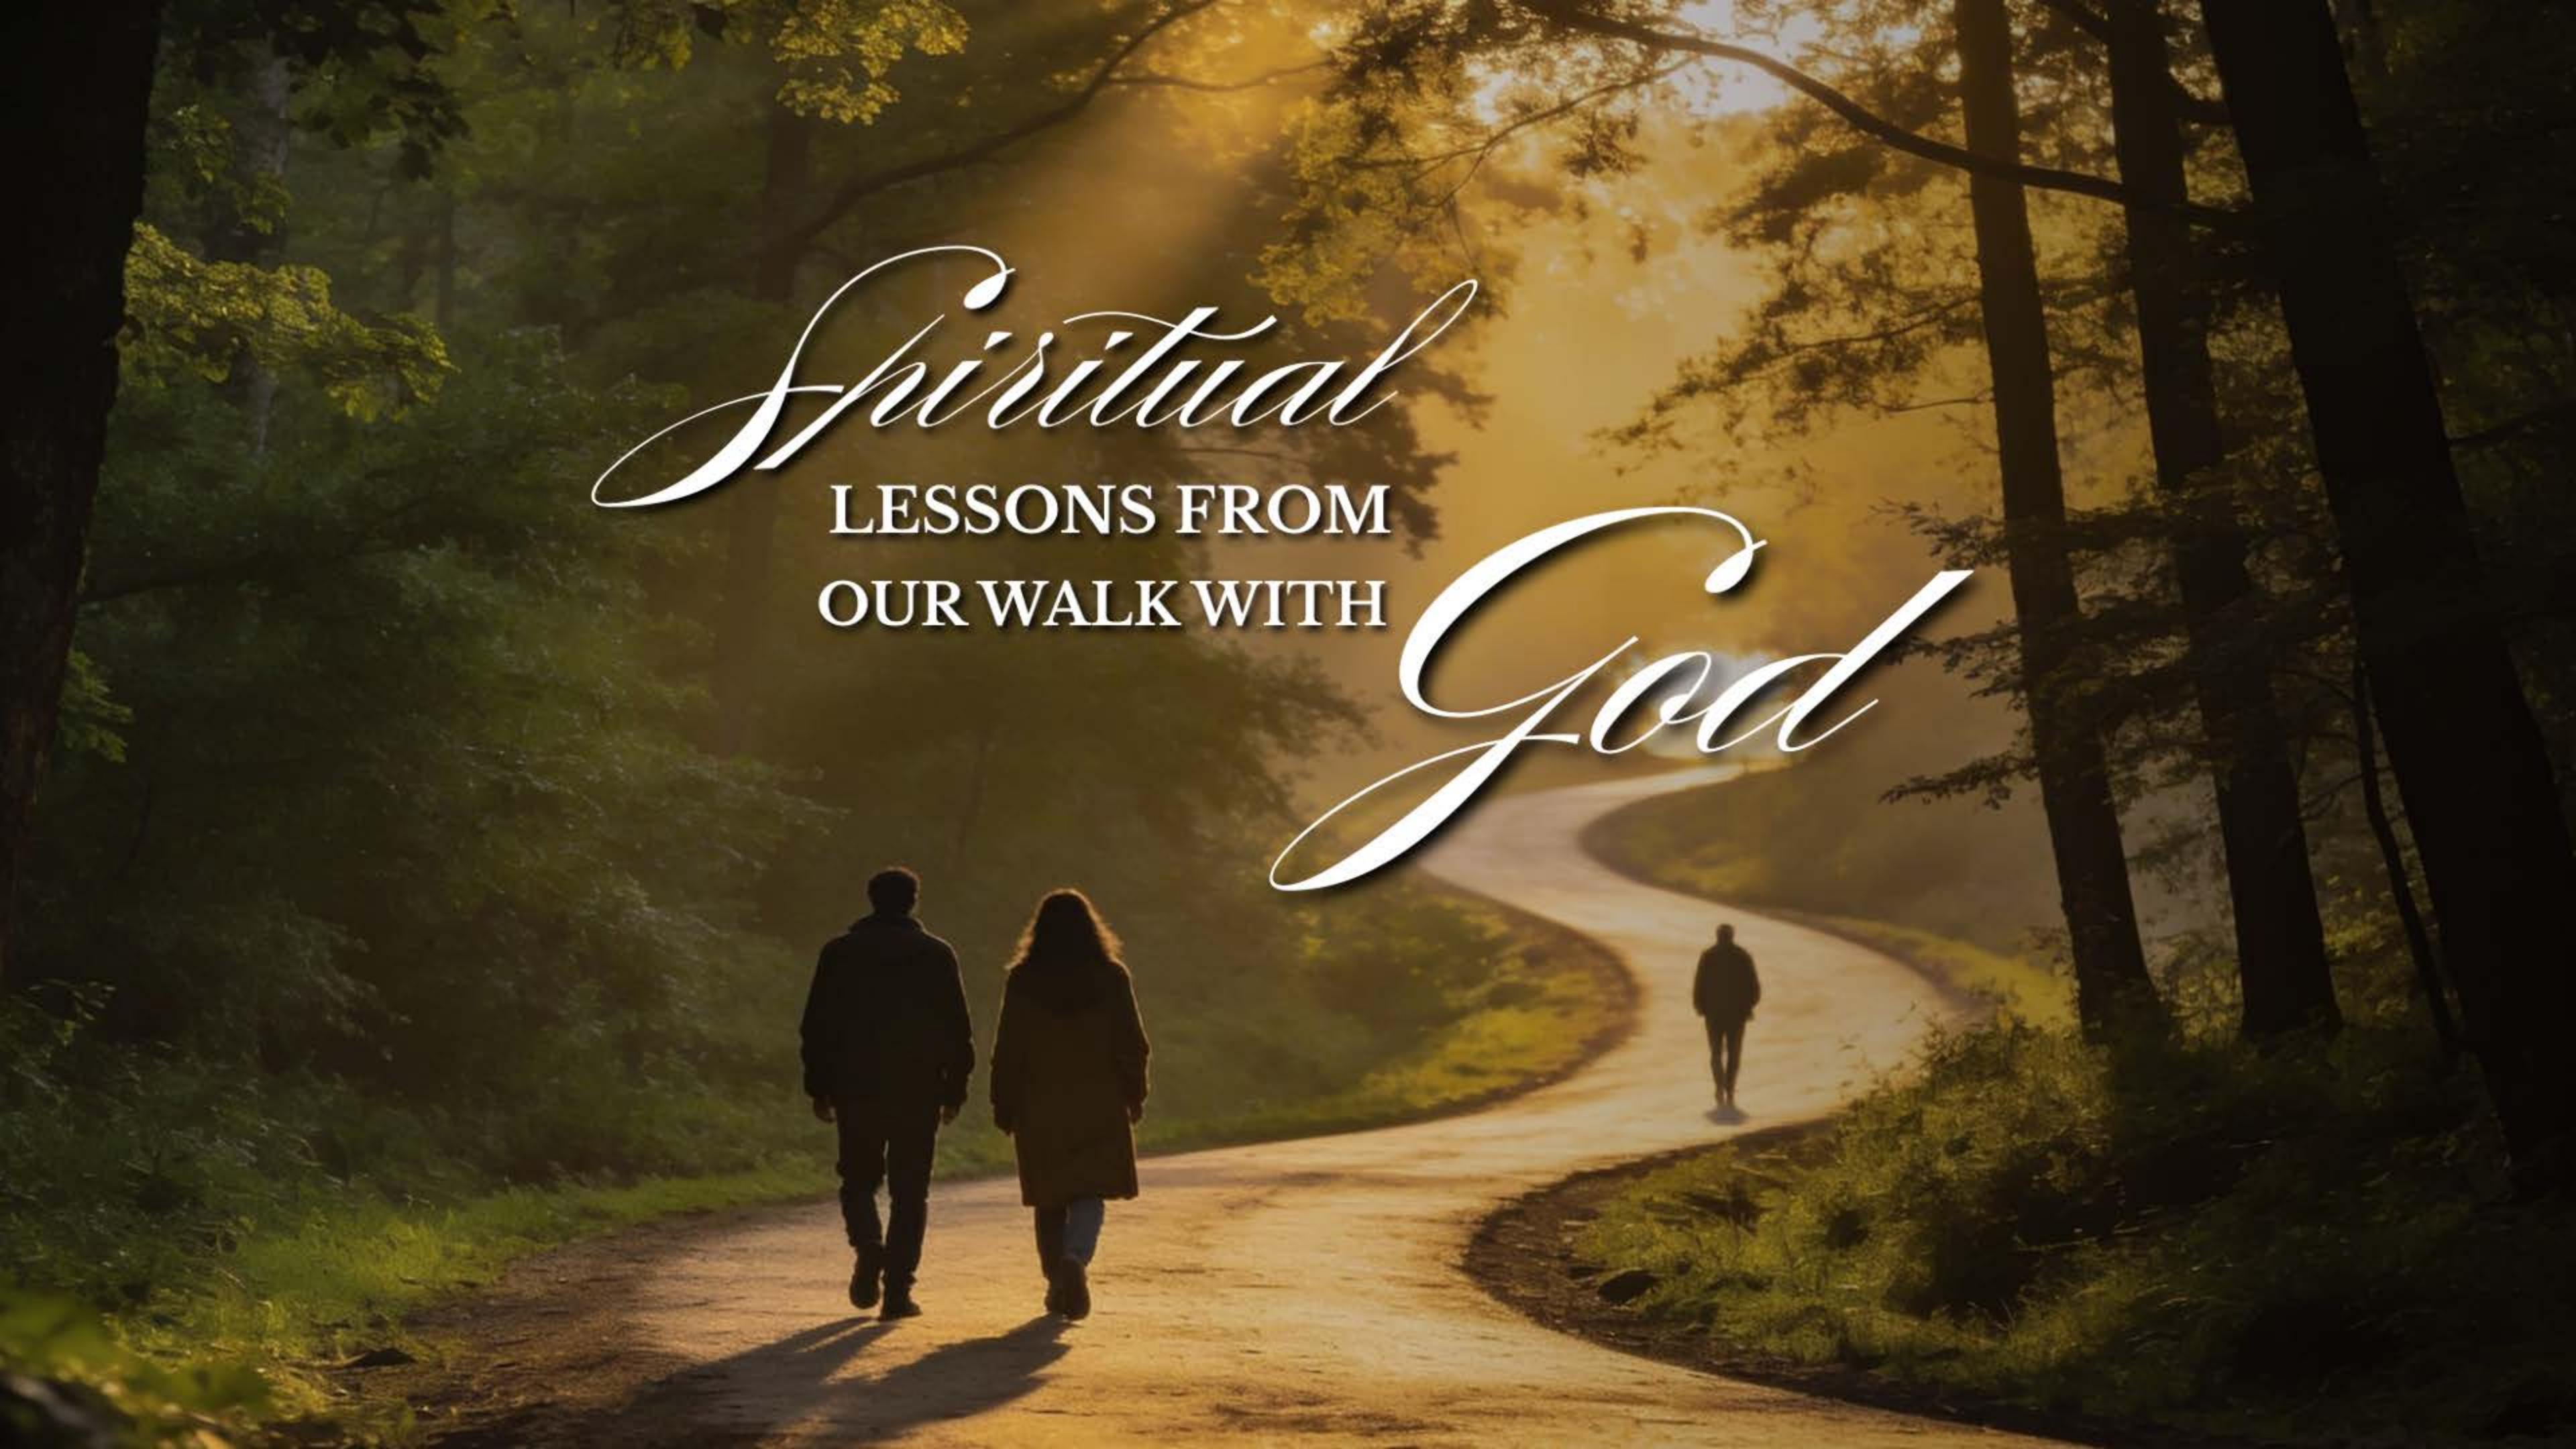

⁸Although you have not seen him,
you love him;
and even though you do not see him now,
you believe in him
and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy,

1 Peter 1

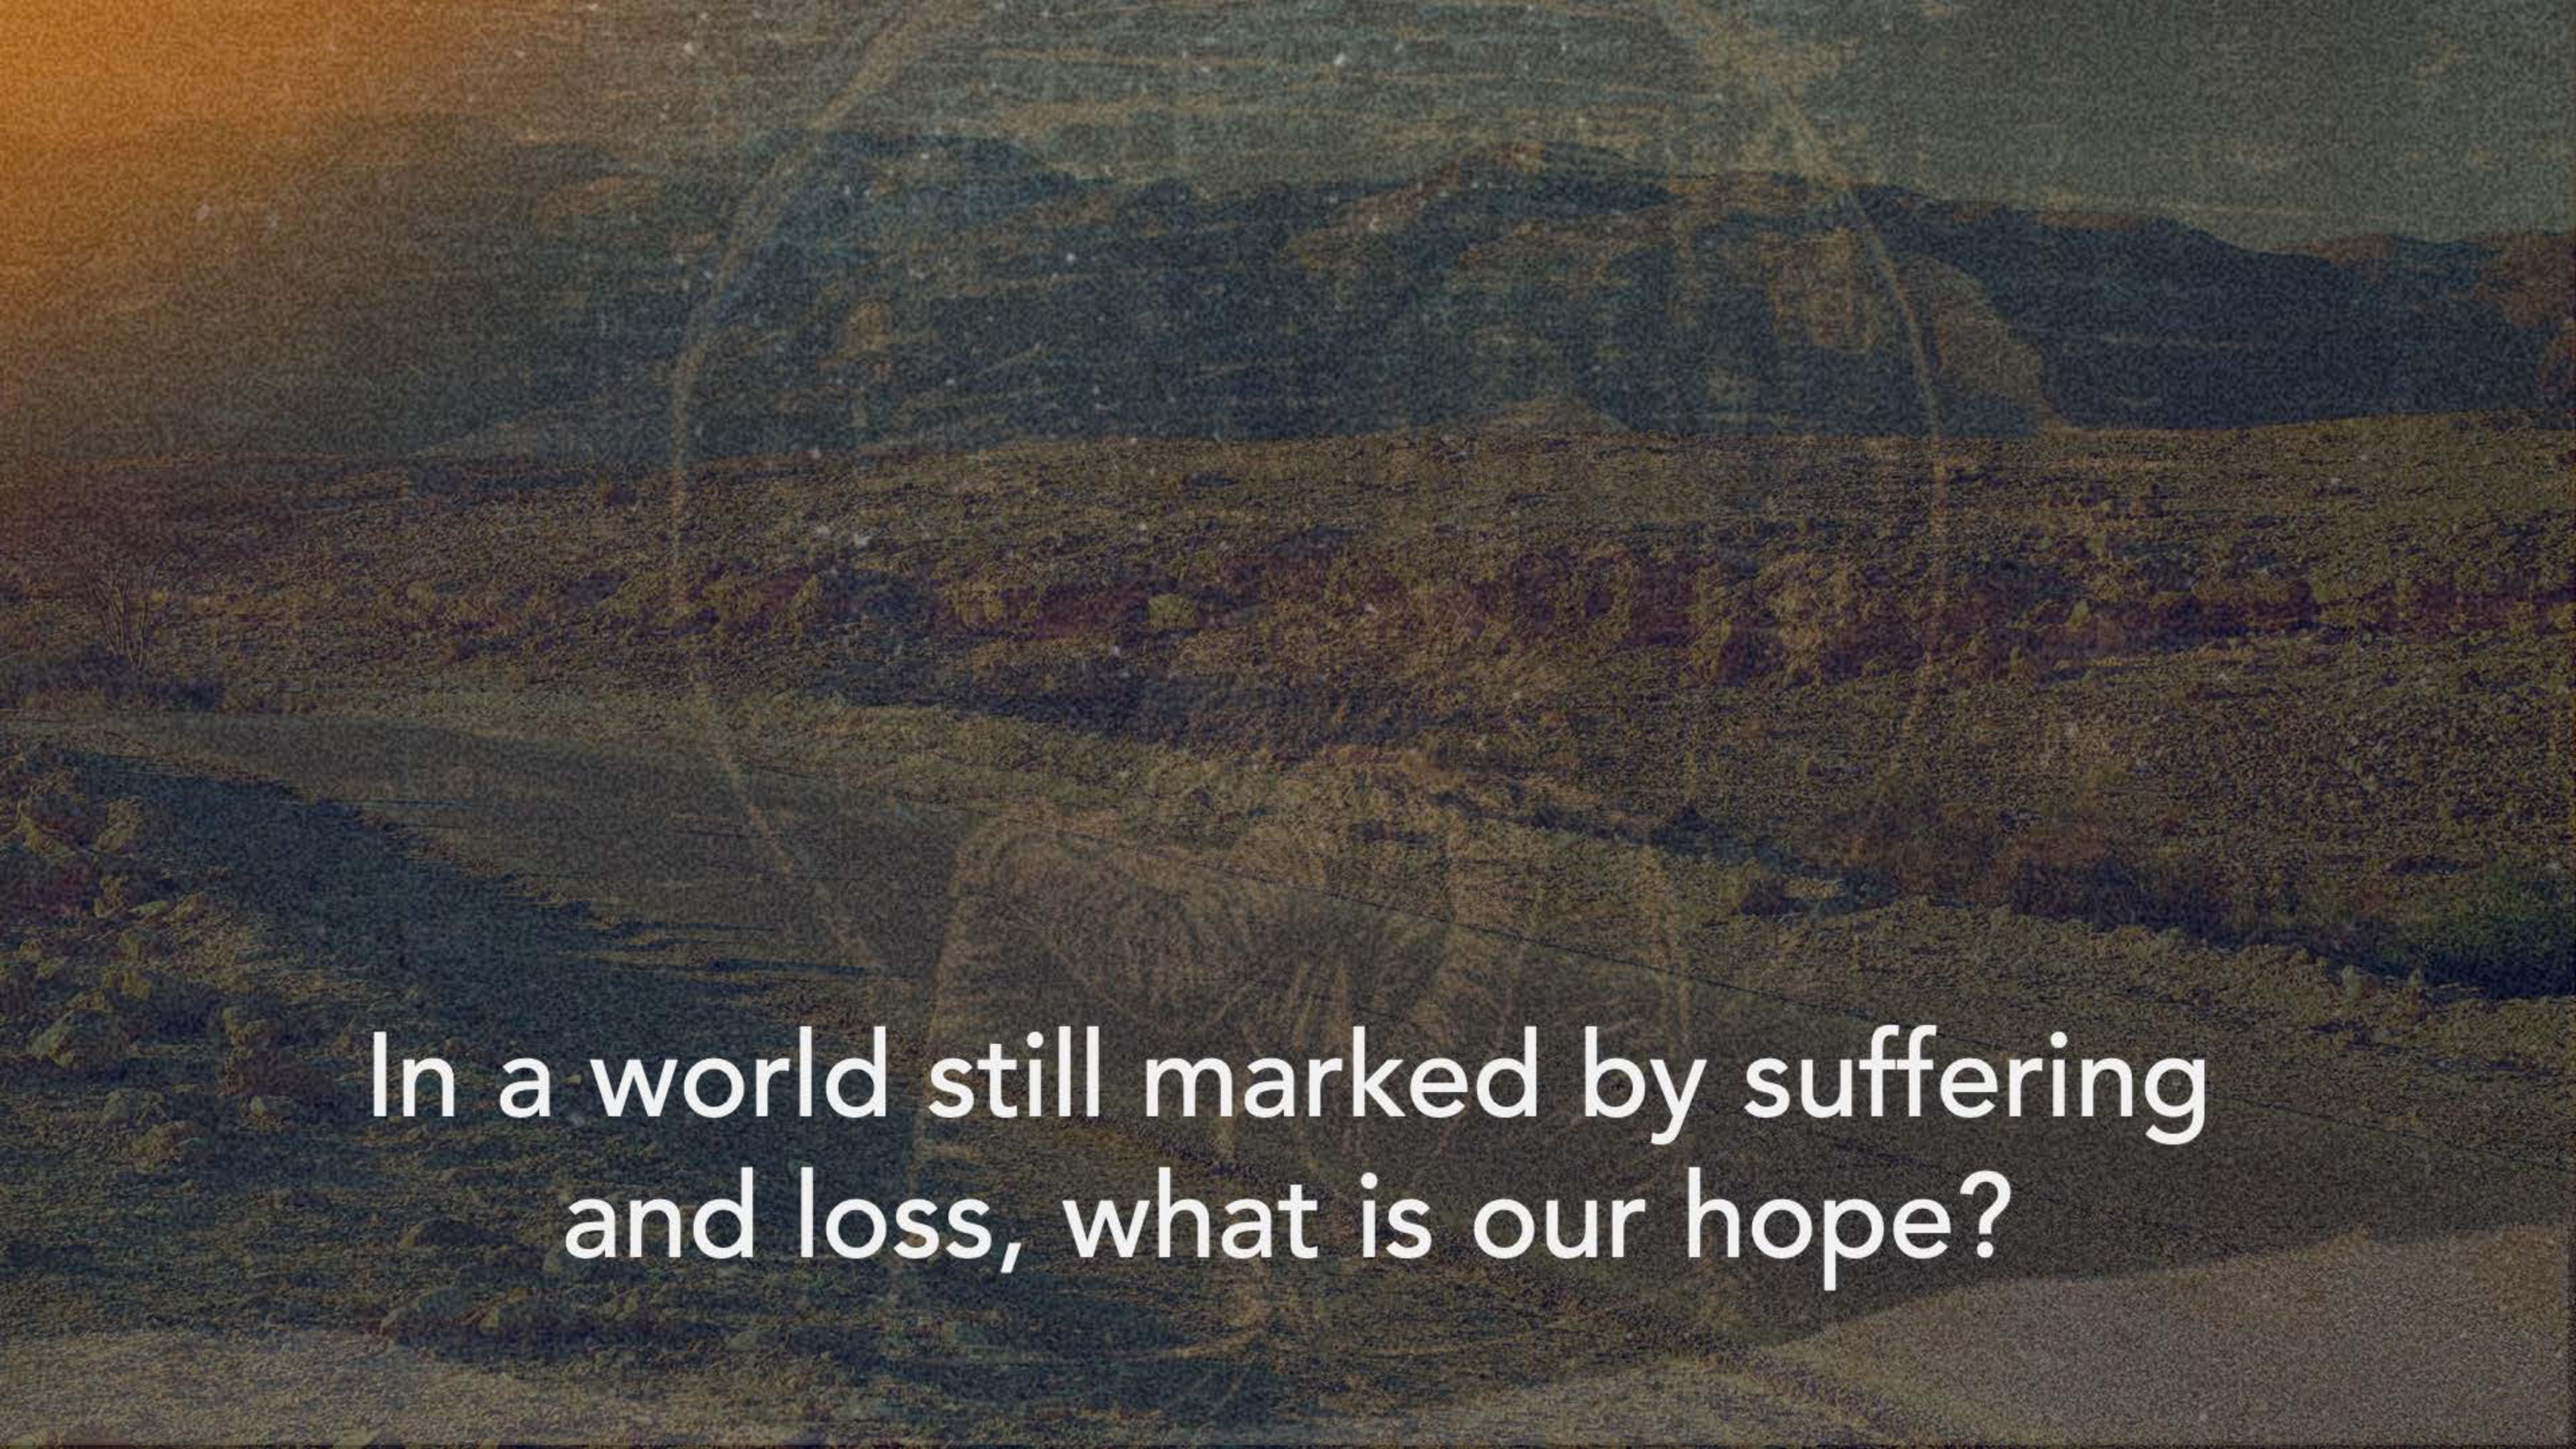

⁹ for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

LESSONS FROM OUR WALK WITH God

In a world still marked by suffering and loss, what is our hope?

A hand is holding a globe, showing a map of the Southern Hemisphere. The globe is dark blue with gold-colored latitude and longitude lines. The hand is visible from the wrist up, wearing a dark-colored cuff. A large, semi-transparent white play button is overlaid on the globe, covering the southern continent and the ocean to the west. The background is a light gray.

Hope does not erase the darkness.
It teaches us to walk through it toward the Light.

We don't reason our way into RESURRECTION HOPE;
we receive it from the living Christ.
