2 CHRONICLES 36

<sup>15</sup> The Lord, the God of their ancestors, sent word to them through his messengers again and again, because he had pity on his people and on his dwelling place.

2 CHRONICLES 36

<sup>16</sup> But they mocked God's messengers, despised his words and scoffed at his prophets until the wrath of the Lord was aroused against his people and there was no remedy.

2 CHRONICLES 36

<sup>19</sup> They set fire to God's temple
and broke down the wall of Jerusalem;
they burned all the palaces
and destroyed everything of value there.

2 CHRONICLES 36

<sup>20</sup> He carried into exile to Babylon the remnant, who escaped from the sword, and they became servants to him and his successors until the kingdom of Persia came to power.

Psalm 147

WOUNDED SOUL

PSALM 147

<sup>1</sup> Praise the Lord!

How good to sing praises to our God!
How delightful and how fitting!

PSALM 147

<sup>2</sup> The Lord is rebuilding Jerusalem and bringing the exiles back to Israel.

PSALM 147

<sup>3</sup> He heals the brokenhearted
and bandages their wounds.

PSALM 147

<sup>4</sup> He counts the stars
and calls them all by name.

His understanding is beyond comprehension!

PSALM 147

<sup>6</sup> The Lord supports the humble,
but he brings the wicked down into the dust.

PSALM 147

<sup>7</sup> Sing out your thanks to the Lord;
sing praises to our God with a harp.

PSALM 147

<sup>8</sup> He covers the heavens with clouds, provides rain for the earth,
and makes the grass grow in mountain pastures.

<sup>9</sup> He gives food to the wild animals
and feeds the young ravens when they cry.

PSALM 147

<sup>10</sup> He takes no pleasure in the strength of a horse or in human might.
<sup>11</sup> No, the Lord's delight is in those who fear him,
those who put their hope
in his unfailing love.

PSALM 147

<sup>12</sup> Glorify the Lord, O Jerusalem!
Praise your God, O Zion!

PSALM 147

<sup>13</sup> For he has strengthened the bars of your gates and blessed your children within your walls.

<sup>14</sup> He sends peace across your nation
and satisfies your hunger with the finest wheat.

PSALM 147

<sup>15</sup> He sends his orders to the world—
how swiftly his word flies!

<sup>16</sup> He sends the snow like white wool;
he scatters frost upon the ground like ashes.

PSALM 147

<sup>17</sup> He hurls the hail like stones.
Who can stand against his freezing cold?
<sup>18</sup> Then, at his command, it all melts.
He sends his winds, and the ice thaws.

PSALM 147

<sup>19</sup> He has revealed his words to Jacob,
his decrees and regulations to Israel.

<sup>20</sup> He has not done this for any other nation;
they do not know his regulations.

PSALM 147

Praise the Lord!

A black and white photograph of a woman's face, partially obscured by deep shadows. Her eyes are looking directly at the camera. The text "Who is God?" is overlaid in a large, white, sans-serif font across the center of the image.

Who is God?

PSALM 147

<sup>3</sup> He heals the brokenhearted
and bandages their wounds.

PSALM 147

<sup>4</sup> He counts the stars
and calls them all by name.

His understanding is beyond comprehension!

A photograph of a man and a woman smiling and standing in a field of tall, dry grass. The man is on the left, wearing a dark jacket, and the woman is on the right, wearing a light-colored top. The image has a blue tint and is used as a background for the text.

"God, how are You ever going to fix
someone like me?"

A man with a grey beard and a woman with blonde hair are smiling. They are positioned on the left side of the frame. The background is a dense, blue-tinted image of pine needles or branches, creating a textured, natural setting. The overall mood is serene and hopeful.

“Letting God heal the wound of the abandonment and the rejection and the unfaithfulness...It was the most painful and the most gut wrenching experience
of dying to self.”

A man with a grey beard and a woman with blonde hair are smiling in a forest. The man is on the left, and the woman is on the right. They are both looking towards the camera. The background is a dense forest with many trees and foliage. The image has a blue tint.

"I believe He is not only the God of the mountain top,
but the God of the valley,
of the storm, of the grief,
of the shipwreck, of the loss,
of the pain, and He is there
every step of the way."

The background is a dark, textured image, possibly a painting or a photograph of a forest floor. It features a central, lighter-colored path that leads from the bottom towards the top. The path is flanked by dense, dark foliage and trees. In the upper left corner, there is a small, dark, rectangular object that looks like a window or a doorway. The overall tone is dark and moody, with a blue-grey color palette. A white, hand-drawn style rectangular box with a slightly irregular border is centered horizontally across the middle of the image. Inside this box, the text "Who is God?" is written in a clean, white, sans-serif font.

Who is God?

"I had been running from God all my life
trying to define myself,
trying to discover who I was,
when all along, all I had to do
was to ask Him."

"Then I knew that only
God could define me,
because He had created me.
There was freedom in that."

What is your Attitude?

A black and white photograph of a woman's face, partially obscured by deep shadows. Her eyes are looking directly at the camera, and her expression is contemplative. The lighting is dramatic, with one side of her face in shadow.

My Foundation?

PSALM 147

<sup>19</sup> He has revealed his words to Jacob,
his decrees and regulations to Israel.

<sup>20</sup> He has not done this for any other nation;
they do not know his regulations.

A man and a woman are smiling and looking towards the camera. They are standing in a field of tall, dry grass or reeds. The woman is on the left, with long blonde hair, and the man is on the right, with short grey hair. The background is a dense field of similar vegetation, extending to the horizon. The overall tone is warm and positive.

“I look at what
and I realized
I had made a huge mistake!”
