

KEY SCRIPTURE

Numbers 12:1 Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married, for he had married a Cushite woman. 2 And they said, “Has the Lord indeed spoken only through Moses? Has he not spoken through us also?” And the Lord heard it. 3 Now the man Moses was very meek, more than all people who were on the face of the earth. (ESV)

TAKEAWAYS

MEEKNESS IS NOT WEAKNESS; IT IS STRENGTH UNDER CONTROL

GODLY GENTLENESS TAKES IT UP WITH HIM NOT THEM.

SELF-CONTROL DOESN'T HAVE AN EXPIRATION DATE

QUESTIONS

- 1) Brandon Marshall shared about how true strength comes from exercising self-control and showing humility and kindness to others. Thinking of the relationships in your life, how can you begin to show gentleness and self-control in your interactions with others?
- 2) Many times we can find ourselves in situations where we feel as though we are entitled to hold onto an offense. However, Brandon shared that Godly gentleness takes it up with Him and not them. Is there something you've been holding onto that you need to give over to the Lord? How can you start walking in gentleness in this area?
- 3) In this message, Brandon spoke about how there is no expiration date for self-control, meaning that we should walk in self-control in every situation. Even in the midst of frustrating circumstances, is there something the Holy Spirit is growing in you right now that requires self-control? What does self-control look like for you right now?

PUT IT IN ACTION

This week, take time to seek the Holy Spirit and see if there are any areas where you may have things like fear, worry, anxiousness, etc that is keeping you from growing in patience and faithfulness. What do you need to change or lay aside in order for God to move in this area of your life?
