

PRIVACY POLICY

Millcreek Community Church respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information that you provide to us. This statement explains our policies and practices regarding the use and disclosure of your personal information by Millcreek Community Church. Please note that Millcreek Community Church reviews and updates this Privacy Policy from time to time as needed without notice. Therefore, you should review the terms of this policy periodically to make sure that you are aware of how Millcreek Community Church collects and uses personal information. By using our website, you consent to the collection and use of your personal information by Millcreek Community Church as explained below.

- Personal Information: You have complete control over your personal information. In general, you can visit our website without providing us with any personal information. However, there are instances where we must have your personal information in order for us to grant you access to our protected and secured sites. This information may include registration data (your name, address, email address, phone number, title, etc.), information request data, and response data ("User Information"). When you receive your confirmation email or when you receive any email from the list server, you will be given instructions on how to remove yourself from the list.
- Use of User Information: Your User Information will only be used to allow you to do the following: Register to give financially online to Millcreek Community Church, register for events sponsored by Millcreek Community Church, and to comment on posts or blogs on the Millcreek Community Church website. However, please do not submit any User Information if you are less than 18 years of age.
- Disclosure of User Information: Millcreek Community Church does not sell, trade or transfer User Information to third parties.
- Accuracy and Security: The accuracy and security of the User Information is important to Millcreek Community Church. If you contact us to correct your User Information, we will attempt to correct such inaccuracies in a timely manner. Millcreek Community Church is concerned with the security of your User Information and is committed to taking reasonable steps to protect it from unauthorized access and use of that personal information. To that end, we put in place the appropriate physical, electronic and managerial policies and procedures to secure your personal User Information. We also continue to implement procedures to maintain accurate, complete and current User Information.

- Username and Passwords: Access to certain content on our website may require a username and/or password.
- Cookies: Millcreek Community Church uses "cookies". A cookie is a small data file that a website can transfer to a visitor's hard drive to keep records of the visits to such site. A cookie contains information such as your username and password that helps us recognize the pages you have visited and improve future visits, but the only personal information a cookie can contain is the information that you provide yourself. A cookie cannot read data off of your hard drive or read cookie files created by other sites. Information stored in cookies may be encrypted, however, we do not store your credit card number in cookies. If you prefer not to accept a cookie, you can set your web browser (Microsoft Internet Explorer or Safari, Mozilla or Google Chrome) to warn you before accepting cookies or you can refuse all cookies by turning them off in your web browser. However, access to some of our secured website(s) may require the use of cookies, which you must enable only cookies that get sent back to the originating server. Otherwise, you can still access most of the features on our website even without accepting a cookie.
- External Links: Millcreek Community Church website provides links to other third party websites. Even if the third party is affiliated with Millcreek Community Church through a business partnership or otherwise, Millcreek Community Church is not responsible for the privacy policies or practices or the content of such external links. These links are provided to you for convenience purposes only and you access them at your own risk.
- General: If you have questions regarding our Privacy Statement, please contact Millcreek Community Church via office@millcreek.org.
