

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

The Way To Heaven (John 14:1-8)

1. How do you typically respond to troubles in your life, and how might Jesus' words in John 14:1 challenge or change your approach?
2. In what ways does the concept of Jesus preparing a place for us in heaven impact your perspective on earthly struggles and your eternal hope?
3. How does understanding Jesus as 'the way, the truth, and the life' affect your view of other religions or philosophical worldviews?
4. What does it mean to you personally that Jesus is not just a guide to truth and life, but claims to be truth and life itself?
5. How might the promise of Jesus' return comfort believers facing persecution or hardship? How does it impact your daily life?
6. In light of Jesus' exclusive claim to be the only way to the Father, how can Christians engage respectfully with those of different beliefs while still holding firm to this truth?
7. How does the image of God's house with many rooms challenge or affirm your understanding of heaven and eternal life?
8. What are some practical ways we can 'stay awake' and be ready for Christ's return, as mentioned in Matthew 24:42-44?
9. How does C.S. Lewis' quote about desires that can't be satisfied in this world resonate with your own experiences and longings?
10. In what ways does Jesus' promise to return for his followers parallel the ancient Galilean engagement customs, and how does this deepen your understanding of our relationship with Christ?
