

SMALL GROUP GUIDE

The Way To Heaven (John 14:1-6)

Key Takeaways:

1. Jesus comforts troubled hearts by reminding us of important truths.
2. Our belief in Jesus as God provides hope and eternal perspective.
3. Jesus has prepared an eternal home for believers in heaven.
4. Jesus promises to return for His followers.
5. Jesus is the only way to the Father and to eternal life.

Discussion Questions:

1. What situations in life tend to trouble your heart the most? How does Jesus' command to "stop letting your hearts be troubled" challenge you?
2. Pastor Nick mentions that we are responsible for how we respond to circumstances. How can we practically apply this in our daily lives?
3. Discuss the concept of Jesus preparing a place for us in heaven. How does this impact your view of eternity?
4. How does the promise of Jesus' return provide comfort in difficult times?
5. Jesus says, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life." What does each of these mean to you personally?
6. In our pluralistic society, how can we compassionately communicate the exclusivity of Jesus as the only way to God?
7. Pastor Nick mentions C.S. Lewis' quote about desires that can't be satisfied in this world. Have you experienced this? How does it point to our need for God?

Practical Applications:

1. This week, when you feel troubled, practice stopping and reminding yourself of the truths Jesus shared in this passage.
2. Write down three ways you can demonstrate your trust in God during challenging situations.
3. Spend time in prayer, thanking Jesus for preparing a place for you and asking for His presence in your daily life.
4. Share with a non-believing friend or family member why you believe Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life. Be prepared to listen and respond with gentleness and respect.
5. Memorize John 14:6 and reflect on its meaning throughout the week.
