Receiving and Sharing the Love of Christ
January 2026 Newsletter

¹⁶Rejoice always, ¹⁷pray without ceasing, ¹⁸give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:16–18 (ESV)

Dear Friends in Christ,

God inspired Paul to pen these words at the conclusion of his first letter to the church in Thessalonica. This on the northeast coast of Greece on modern maps. Paul established the church in Thessalonica, but people opposed to the Gospel of Jesus ran Paul out of town. Paul sent Timothy later to check on the church, and even though they had gone through great persecution for the faith, they remained faithful. This letter is to encourage the church to remain faithful. Rejoice! Pray! Give Thanks!

Rejoice always! Paul was also inspired to write that to the Philippians as well. Rejoice in the Lord always, and again I say Rejoice! God isn't telling us to "Be Happy!" Happy is the emotional response to delightful circumstances. Rejoicing comes from a deeper commitment to intentionally look for the positive. It is a fulfilling of the 8th commandment – "to put the best construction on everything."

Pray without ceasing! Prayer is purely communicating with God. It isn't meant to take place 5 times a day when the prayer siren blows, or just at meals and bedtime. Prayer is intended to be a walking with God throughout the day. Developing the deep personal relationship with God who is above all and in all who sees you through all.

Give Thanks in all circumstances! It is easy to give thanks for those things that bring you happiness, but how do you give thanks in ALL circumstances? It is by believing God's Word that "All things work to the good for those who love God and are called according to His purpose." So we hear the testimony of those who witness the violent deaths of Jesus' disciples, that they gave thanks for having the opportunity to die for the Gospel. They knew that the death of the mortal body was not eternal death, but a transition from the mortal to the immortal.

Gail and I have truly been blessed to be called here to Stephenville, TX to serve the people of Faith Lutheran Church. You are all a great blessing to us. We are just blown away by your generous love offering that was given to us at the Children's Christmas Program.

Faith Lutheran Church is filled with faithful servants who are warm and welcoming. I love listening to the "buzz" before the worship service. This is an indication that you enjoy being with each other. Gail and I both love that the congregation sings with gusto. I give thanks for Lisa who administers the affairs of this congregation faithfully, for Christine and all of her musical talents and dedication to bringing the spirit of praise to our worship, for faithful elders who love and care for the people of faith with me. I am thankful for Faith School. What a precious treasure we have to share the Gospel with these young people. I can't tell you the joy it brings me when one of these little students sees me in a public place and wants to give me a hug or coming to work when the little ones in highchairs are having breakfast and they see me walk through the door and a little one yells "Pastor" and several want to give me high five or a fist bump. May God continue to bless our fellowship as we move into 2026. Thank you for the opportunity to serve in this place. Again, thank you for your generous love offering and all the Christmas cards and other gifts as well.

In His Service;
Pastor Lee & Gail

Mission of the Month:

Choices Clinic & Life Resources Center

Mission Statement: Choices Life Resource Center is a Christian ministry dedicated to preserving the value of human life by providing abortion alternatives, practical assistance and education to the Cross Timbers area.

As Faith prepares to celebrate Sanctity of Life Sunday, we are, once again, partnering with Choices Clinic & Life Resource Center in January to provide prayer support and financial assistance. The 'Change for Life' baby bottle campaign will begin on January 18 and continue through March 1. You can begin saving your change now and, on the 18th, pick up and fill your baby bottle. Your support is very important to help Choices provide services in our community such as pregnancy tests, limited ultrasound, material assistance and pregnancy support classes. Choices also offers group support study and individual support sessions to men and women suffering from abortion trauma, women impacted by abuse and to those seeking a growing relationship with Christ.

Lutherans For Life's 2026 theme for Sanctity of Human Life Sunday is

"Fearfully and Wonderfully Made"

Hospitalizations:

If you would like pastoral care when you are hospitalized, please call the church office or Pastor Lee directly. The hospital does not notify us of your admissions, even if you inform them that you are a member of Faith Lutheran Church. Privacy laws prohibit them contacting us about your hospitalization. Thank you.

Pastor Lee

We are here to help! The Board of Evangelism will provide food to church members who are recovering from illnesses or surgical procedures, birth of a baby, or other situations where meals are challenging.

Sunday School Christmas Program

Thanks to all of our children and youth who participated in this year's Christmas program and thanks to the teachers, parents and Board who helped make it possible!

Thanks also to LWML for gifting the children goodie bags after the program!

Stephen Ministry

Stephen Ministry is available to anyone who is facing overwhelming needs for care: hospitalizations, grief, suffering, loneliness or discouragement, divorce or separation, unemployment, accidents, and the list goes on. Please feel free to contact Everett Seider, Referrals Coordinator. Your Stephen Ministry team prays for you to have a blessed New Year! Here's a poem to ponder:

As the clock strikes twelve
We are beckoned through the door
Into a new year.
Go forward slowly..no need to rush,
everything is waiting for you.
What will you be taking with you?
and what will you be leaving behind?

Here awaits a blank canvas
For you to fill with new experiences.
Paint it brightly, live it joyously.
Welcome each trial and accept every tribulation as they unfold.
Carry yourself with grace and in difficult times, look to the wisdom you have gained thus far, to accompany you through.

In a short while new buds will be appearing and fresh growth will resume in all its glory.
Bask in the beauty that each season will inevitably bring.
Celebrate each gift and mourn each loss
All is part of the wheel of life, so generously given to each of us.

And remember to give thanks for each and every new blessing coming your way ..
So go now, the door is open,
the future awaits
A new year has been gifted ...

Epiphany:
January 6

“For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you hope and a future.” Jeremiah 29:11

Happy New Year everyone! I hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas celebrating Jesus. As we begin a new year, we may look forward to some happy events in the future, but we may also be uncertain about other events. It's important to remember that God is in control and that His plans for us will ultimately be for our good, even though we may not understand it at the time. His love for us never fails.

Advent by Candlelight was beautiful and uplifting this year as always. We learned a lot about the carols we sing at Christmas while enjoying food, fellowship, and wassail. Thanks to our hostesses and all who helped put this together.

Next month, in February, we will have a video presentation showing our LWML mission grants at work. Please be sure to join us for that.

Thank you for donating to the mite box last month. Because of your contributions, we can help fund mission grants like Phil's Friends, which provides cancer patients with care packages containing both practical and comforting items. The most comforting item, of course, is the Bible, the only true source of hope.

Blessings to all,
Marlene Peiser
