

#crazymakers week 7

Note to the Host: Thank you so much for leading your group and being willing to create community! Remember, this is your group, and you have the freedom to navigate the conversation that best fits your group's dynamic.

ICEBREAKER:

- If you could instantly become an expert at 1 thing, what would it be?

QUESTIONS:

These questions are based off the sermon that took place on Sunday. In this time, feel free to revisit any of the scripture that was discussed in the message.

- 1) Have you ever formed a "hurting huddle" with some folks to commiserate with one another? Did you find that it freed you from your issue or did it make it worse?
- 2) Pastor Brian said, "whoever you connect to, will direct you." Where have you experienced this positively in your life? Negatively?
- 3) "The person you see, is the person you will be!" How do you see yourself when you look in the mirror? How can the critical voice turn to a coach? What is the difference between a critic vs. coach?
- 4) Has there ever been a time when God has asked you to do the unthinkable so He can do the improbable? (describe the situation and what led you to take this faith step)
- 5) Go around the group and have everyone share some of the greatest blessings in their life that they need to show gratitude to the Lord for?
- 6) Have you or someone you know shown God thankfulness in, not for, a terrible situation? (describe the circumstances with the group)
- 7) Who is someone in your life right now that needs to be seen? How can you acknowledge them this week? (Feel free to swing by the church and grab a #weseeyou card to give them)

PRAYER:

- Make sure that everyone has a chance to share.
- Have someone type your requests up so the group can recall them throughout the week.
- Encourage and welcome all praise reports!
- Do not get overwhelmed about the time of prayer, pray however your group feels comfortable. This can either be one person pray, or you can go in a circle and have each person pray a few sentences! Be sure to change it up so your group grows together.
