

TALK IT OVER

SMALL GROUP SERMON DISCUSSION

Note to the Host: Thanks for leading your group and being willing to create community! Remember, this is your group, and you have the freedom to navigate the conversation that best fits your group's dynamic.

ICEBREAKER:

- "Tell me and I forget. Teach me and I remember. Involve me and I learn." - Ben Franklin, Albert Einstein, or Steve Jobs
- "The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched-they must be felt with the heart." - Helen Keller, Judy Garland, or Marilyn Monroe

QUESTIONS:

These questions are based off the sermon that took place on Sunday. In this time, feel free to revisit any of the scripture that was discussed in the message. Answer as many questions as your time allows; don't feel pressed to get through them all.

1. Pastor Brian used the example of William Booth, the founder of Salvation Army in the message. Do you have a passion area in which God has all of you? Describe how you're using it for Him.
2. From a worldly perspective, there are many ways we classify people. How does Jesus' view that someone is either lost or saved, shift the power of the Gospel?
3. Read Luke 9: 59-62. Where in your faith journey do you tend to look back from the plow and not ahead to what God has planned for you and your life?
4. If someone asked you what it took to be saved, how would you answer?
5. Does God have all of you? Is there a "but" or "except" area in your life where you haven't released control to Him?
6. Have a short testimonial time-how did you meet Jesus? When were you saved?

PRAYER:

Please don't stress about the time of prayer, pray however your group feels comfortable. This can either be one person pray, or you can go in a circle and have each person pray a few sentences. Be sure to change it up so your prayer time stays fresh in your group!

- Make sure that everyone has a chance to share.
- Encourage and welcome all praise reports!
- Have someone type your requests up so the group can recall them throughout the week.
