Lori Boyd

Lori Boyd is from Murfreesboro, Tennessee and attends the East Main church of Christ. She and her husband, Sam, were married in 1998 and have three children, Evie, Kate, and Briggs. This year they were also excited to add Grady, their new son-in-law, to the family! Lori is a Registered Nurse and a high school teacher at Middle Tennessee Christian School, where she teaches Honors Anatomy, Health Science, and Forensics. She has a master's degree in Christian Scripture and is currently a doctoral student at the Harding School of Theology.

Lori has been a writer for Think, Tennessee Home and Farm, and Christian Woman magazines. She has written four books: Trailblazers, Walking to the Promised Land, Hope Island, and Praying Through It-all made available through Kaio Publications. She enjoys teaching Bible classes and is passionate about women's ministry.

Lori was born in Germany and grew up in the Air Force. After graduating from Abilene Christian University with her nursing degree, she moved to Nashville in 1997 and has called Tennessee "home" since. Some of her favorite things include spending time with her family, writing, reading, traveling, and drinking lots of coffee! Above everything else, she loves God, and the message of hope found on the pages of His Word.
