

December 7, 2025

*And all who heard it wondered at what
the shepherds told them.
But Mary treasured up
all these things,
pondering them
in her heart.*

*And the Shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God
for all they had heard and seen,
as it had been told them.*

Luke 2:18-20

For God So Loved the World...

The joy of Christmas is the celebration of God's full revelation of love for us. We are not simply celebrating a baby being born (even though babies are wonderful blessings from God). We are celebrating the fullness of God's love and good news for us because

Jesus is God with us,

from His birth to His death, burial, and especially His resurrection.

God loves you! Jesus' life is the complete revelation proof of His love!

May we celebrate with joy the fullness of the life of Christ, our Savior.

"For God SO LOVED the world, that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life..." – John 3:16

A lot of hard work has been put into our Christmas Pageant happening this Sunday. From set design, to making most of the costumes by hand, to the practices the kids have put in, I am super excited to see how it all comes together. I hope you and your family enjoy and stay for our special holiday family meal that follows! Jesus: the Reason for the Season

We are having our annual teen Christmas party two Wednesday's from now, on December 17th. Be looking for a fun item to bring as we switch gifts for our White Elephant game. Addyson Miller has had some great ideas and is putting this together for us, so more surprises will be revealed that evening. Our party will start at 6PM and should wrap up around 8:30.

Did you figure out the connection between Hebrews 13:5 and a popular Christmas movie? We will continue to talk about it this Sunday in Bible Class due to us practicing for Imagination Station. Thanks to everyone who helped in Imagination Station last week. We are less than twenty days to Christmas!
