Blessing Our Children

“And He took the children into His arms and blessed them...”

~ Mark 10:16

Jesus' example of blessing children is a great reminder that God invites us to join Him in blessing our own children. As we follow Jesus, we are to be more like Him.

Here is our struggle – How do we speak blessing to our children in a way that makes them feel special, but not so special that they act like they are your favorite child over their siblings? The struggle for balance is real. We struggle with questions like; when should I bless them, what do I say, will it lead them in a good or in a bad direction, etc.?

Here is a simple suggestion. Since followers of Jesus are Priests in the Kingdom of God (see 1 Peter 2:9, Revelation 1:6), and you are a follower of Jesus, simply pray the Priestly Blessing over your kids, and do it on a regular basis. See Numbers 6:24-26, it begins like this, “The Lord bless you and keep you...”
