HOPE & JOY

"The Joy of the Lord, will be my strength..."

I love singing this song! It's a song of hope, a song of purpose, a song reminding us of our purpose and direction in life, in following Jesus.

When Nehemiah said these words (8:10), he reminded the people that God always brings renewal for our hope and joy when we seek Him first. He reminded them that current events, politics, and even man-made religion were not enough to keep God's people down. So, he encouraged them, to not be grieved.

In Jesus, we have the fulfillment of this truth! May we live with hope and joy as we follow Him!

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope!" ~ Romans 15:13

~ Tye

Reminder:
