TABERNACLE

Climbing Jamaica's Dunn's River Falls is an exhilarating experience. Water cascades over the smooth rocks of the falls on its way to the Caribbean. It's a challenge as climbers battle the water's flow to make their way to the top. For a teenager named JW, it's a near impossibility. He's sight-impaired, with only a pinhole view of the world.

But JW was determined to climb, and his friend Josiah was willing to team up with him. Josiah was JW's eyes—telling him which slippery rocks to avoid and where to put his hands and feet. And JW was Josiah's heart—showing him what courage looks like.

So much of life is like that daunting climb: We shouldn't walk alone. King Solomon points us to that truth. "Two people are better than one, for they can help each other succeed" (Ecclesiastes 4:9 nlt). Both Josiah and JW were attempting something special—and they could do it only in tandem. The passage continues: "If either [person] falls down, one can help the other up" (v. 10). But neither fell and neither failed. Together, they reached their goals.

God's design for people, presented clearly by Solomon and demonstrated vividly by these two teenagers, is that we work together. The tasks God calls us to do are best done with others—each using what skills and emotions God has given to bring an outcome that points to Him.

Reflect & Pray
Why is it important to serve with others? How does it feel when you team up to point people to God?

SERMON NOTES

[illegible]

WE BELIEVE

In one God eternally existing in three persons;
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
(John 14:10,16,18,26)

Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of the Father, conceived of the Holy Spirit, and born of the virgin Mary.
(John 3:16, Matt. 1:20)

Jesus was crucified, buried and raised from the dead: He ascended into heaven, lives today at the right hand of the Father as our intercessor, and is coming again to receive unto Himself those who are looking for him. (Acts 4:10, Heb. 1:3; 7:25; 9:28)

All men are sinners by nature and practice.
(Romans 3:23, 5:19)

All who believe Jesus died on the cross for their sins and was resurrected from the dead, when they repent and confess with their mouth Jesus as Savior, are born into God's family as sons of God.
(Acts 3:19; Romans 10:9-10)

In being filled with the Holy Spirit, with the evidence of speaking in tongues.
(Acts 2:4; 10:45-46)

In the exercise of the gifts of the spirit that all may be edified.
(1 Corinthians 12:7–11; 14:12)

In observing the ordinances of water baptism by immersion, the Lord's supper, and men having their heads uncovered and women having their heads covered when praying or prophesying.
(Acts 16:33; Matthew 3:16;
1 Corinthians 11:1-26)

In the bodily resurrection; eternal life for the believer, and eternal punishment for the unbeliever.
(John 5:28)
