

Sermon Listening Guide (November 30, 2025)

Scripture: Romans 10:14-15

Sermon Title: “Four Questions”

First Thoughts

We love to receive good news, but Jesus is the “Good News” that can change everything.

Everyone in the world should hear the Gospel of Jesus.

We Must Do Something

The four questions posed in Romans 10 point to the world’s desperate need for the Gospel.

At FIFBC, we like to say: “We exist to help as many people as possible connect with God.”

Anyone who travels the country or world can testify to the spiritual darkness that surrounds us.

“Cultural Christians” are church attenders who are not moved by the world’s lostness

Everyone Deserves to Hear

Romans 10:11-13 prove that anyone can call to the Lord for salvation.

God’s desire is that ALL hear the Gospel.

Beyond our church walls we continue to try to reach this world.

What is Your Heart’s Desire?

In verse 1, Paul reveals his heart’s desire...the salvation of all his countrymen.

What is your heart’s desire?

We have a responsibility to reach Fountain Inn...and the world.

What are the key words in verses 14 and 15?

Final Thoughts

God is sovereign, but we have a tremendous responsibility to spread the Gospel.

What will you do with these two verses?
