Week of August 17, 2025

Small Group Study Guide

ICE BREAKER

- When asked how you are, how common is it for you to respond: "busy"?
- Being BUSY in our culture is considered normal, even valued? Should that be a spiritual goal for us?

STUDY

This week we begin a series on our relationship to time in a Biblical Perspective.

What did you hear in this week's sermon that was new about how you view time in light of God's word?

- 1. Read Revelation 22:13, Psalm 31;15- "My Times are in your hands..."
 - a. What changes in our life knowing that God Owns Time?
 - b. How does Jesus' life and death "marking time" (BC-AD) change all of human history?
- 2. Ecclesiastes 3:1-2, Hebrews 9:27, James 4.14
 - a. How does knowing our life is limited make it more meaningful and sacred?
- 3. Psalms 90:12 "Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom".
 - a. How does God teach us to number our days?
 - b. How does that reality give us wisdom?
 - c. Hospice nurse Bonnie Ware wrote about how facing death creates regrets. Including:
 - d. "I wish I had not lived the life others expected of me". In what way does the Bible teach us not to live to please others' expectations?
 - e. "I wish I had not worked so hard".
 - f. How is workaholism NOT a Christian Value?

- i. She reports that EVERY male patient had that regret!
- ii. How has that reality affected American marriages, children and families?

REFLECT

 How does Jesus' death and resurrection lead us to not fear death but motivate us to "count our days" right now?

PRAY

- Pray for each other's mission and ministry in view of counting your days.
- Follow up on past prayer requests.
- Pray for the families and workplaces of each member of your group.