Sermon Discussion Questions

John Wesley's General Rules provide a framework for Christian living – what kinds of actions should result when we are following Christ. We'll spend 3 weeks looking at all 3. Today we started with "Doing no harm, by avoiding evil of every kind, especially that which is most generally practiced." To reflect on how this applies for you, review Wesley's list below. Which examples of "harm" still apply today? Which need to be adapted? What "harms" would you add to this list?

- The taking of the name of God in vain.
- The profaning the day of the Lord, either by doing ordinary work therein or by buying or selling.
- Drunkenness: buying or selling spirituous liquors, or drinking them, unless in cases of extreme necessity.
- Slaveholding; buying or selling slaves.
- Fighting, quarreling, brawling, brother going to law with brother; returning evil for evil, or railing for railing; the using many words in buying or selling.
- The buying or selling goods that have not paid the duty.
- The giving or taking things on usury—i.e., unlawful interest.
- Uncharitable or unprofitable conversation; particularly speaking evil of magistrates or of ministers.
- Doing to others as we would not they should do unto us.
- Doing what we know is not for the glory of God, as:
  - The putting on of gold and costly apparel.
  - The taking such diversions as cannot be used in the name of the Lord Jesus.
  - The singing those songs, or reading those books, which do not tend to the knowledge or love of God.
  - Softness and needless self-indulgence.
  - Laying up treasure upon earth.
  - Borrowing without a probability of paying; or taking up goods without a probability of paying for them.

Daily Suggested Scripture Readings

Continue to reflect on the first general rule of "doing no harm" with these daily Scripture readings:

- Monday: Deuteronomy 5:1-21
- Tuesday: Galatians 5:13-26
- Wednesday: Luke 14:25-35
- Thursday: Romans 12:9-21
- Friday: 1 Peter 3:8-12
- Saturday: Luke 6:27-36

Next week in worship...

We continue our series on Wesley's General Rules with a focus on the 2nd of the three: "do good." Martin Luther King, Jr. weekend is an especially good time to be inspired to do good in every way, at every opportunity, and of every possible sort. Join us and bring a friend!

God, we are no longer ours, but thine.

Let us have all things, let us have nothing.

We freely and heartily yield all things to thy pleasure and disposal.

O glorious and blessed God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

Thou art ours and we are thine.

So be it.

Central.Congregational Care. News

January 2026 marks the 5th anniversary of Central's Congregational Care Council (CCC).

What has this meant for Central? The leaders of our church's 10 care ministries gather monthly to share updates and plan ways to support our church family. This coordination has resulted in more comprehensive responses to the needs that arise.

How have these ministries impacted you? Our prayer is that you have experienced CCC's impact by seeing Central become a more caring congregation—one where no one has to walk through life's challenges alone.

Your CCC has been intentional in its work. We strive to be compassionate and respectful, and we are committed to connecting with you through unconditional love. Thank you, Central, for allowing us the privilege of walking alongside you.

Central's Circle of Prayer group meets on Thursday mornings both In-Person and by Zoom. A ministry of caring, concerns and joys submitted are prayed over and followed-up upon. If you feel called to care for people in this way, please contact Pastor Lisa and join this dedicated group of prayers. If you need prayerful support, please make your request by clicking on the Prayer Request Prompt on Central's website or by filling out a pew card. YOU are important to us!
