

Day 1

Invite someone to watch this week's Bible Story under the ONEkids tab in the One Missoula App with you!

This week our story comes from 1 Samuel 1-3. Which TESTAMENT is this story from?

OLD TESTAMENT

NEW TESTAMENT

Have a parent or sibling time you and see how fast you can find our memory verse: Psalm 18:30. Write your time below!

Day 2

LOOK UP 1 Samuel 3:18

Samuel told Eli what God's correction would be for the sin of his sons. Eli responded to God's correction with an open and humble heart.

LOOK UP Proverbs 3:11-12

This verse tells us that God corrects those he:

LOVES

HATES

This truth ties in so well to our Big Truth. Write it out below! (Its on the back)

Day 3

Let's look up our memory verse for this week, Psalm 18:30.

What does Psalm 18:30 tell us about God's way? (Fill In the blanks, look on the back if you need help.

"God's way is _____.

All the Lord's _____ prove true. He is a _____ for all who look to him for protection."

Samuel had to tell Eli a hard message from God. He chose to obey and speak the truth. Eli listened and trusted that God's way is best.

Day 4

LOOK UP 1 Samuel 3:19-20

This verse tells us Samuel became known for obeying God and speaking His truth. Because of that, people trusted him and knew he was God's messenger.

On Sunday, you circled a word you want to be known for

TRUTHFUL, OBEDIENT, LOVING, COURAGEOUS, KIND, or TRUSTWORTHY

1. Look up the verse that went with the word you circled. (It's on the back of this devotional)
2. Write that verse on the line below.
