OOEY GOOEY: Jesus Meets us in our Mess

This week

Jesus met many people during his earthly ministry. Each person had their own story and their own struggles, but He invited everyone to follow Him, regardless of the choices they had made in the past. Jesus wants to meet us right where we are, and wants us to follow Him! This week, we talked Jesus comforting the sisters of Lazarus from John 11:17-44, and learned that even death is not too big of a mess for Jesus!

Questions to ask your kiddo...

- What happened in our story today?
- Why is there death in the world?
- Who is the only one who can clean up the mess of sin?
- How does it make you feel to know that Jesus has defeated death and will be raised from death to be in heaven?

This Weeks Challenge

Because of sin, there is death. This is a sad and difficult predicament. But we can let go of our own fear of death as we replace it with trust in God. Encouraging your child to trust God will help to lessen and possibly get rid of any fears they have. But they first need to learn why they can trust God to take that leap of faith. Spend time this week talking about why we can trust God. Read the Bible and spend time talking about the God's promises, and how he always does what he says he will.

Memory Verse

"Jesus heard that. So he said to them, "Those who are healthy don't need a doctor. Sick people do. I have not come to get those who think they are right with God to follow me. I have come to get sinners to follow me." Mark 2:17 (NirV)
