This week, we compared the Christian worldview to naturalism, new spirituality, Islam, and postmodernism. As a family, review what each worldview teaches about humans.

Christianity: God purposefully created humans in His image. Humans are not animals but were created to care for all that God created. God made humans either male or female on purpose. We are each a soul and a body.*

Naturalism: Humans are accidentally evolved animals. We are only our bodies. It doesn't matter if we are boys or girls.*

New spirituality: Humans are accidentally evolved animals, but only the spiritual is real. We need to continue evolving by following our hearts. It doesn't matter if we are boys or girls.*

Islam: Allah purposefully created humans. But humans are not created in Allah's image. We are bodies and souls. It matters if we are boys or girls, but being a boy is better.*

Postmodernism: Humans are accidentally evolved animals. We cannot be sure who we are. Communities help humans decide who they want to be. Humans can be anything their community allows them to be.*

Read through what the Bible teaches about humans again (Gen. 1:26–28). As a family, talk about if you treat other humans the way God designed them. What are some things you need to do differently so that you start treating others like they are made in God's image?

Spend time praying as a family, asking that God would help you to treat others like they are made in His image. Pray for those who practice other worldviews and ask that God would provide you with opportunities to share the good news of Jesus with them.
