Sermon Series

Sheesh: Cultivating Wonder in a Monochrome World
January 11 – February 15

“Sheesh” is more than an expression of surprise—it’s a recognition that life is filled with moments that take our breath away, if only we notice them. This series challenges us to break free from the autopilot of modern life and cultivate a heart that marvels at God’s presence in both the extraordinary and the ordinary. Through six transformative weeks, we’ll explore ancient spiritual practices that awaken wonder. Join us as we trade our tired, monochrome existence for a life painted with wonder, meaning, and divine surprise.

Sermon Reflection and Thoughts on the New Year

Words for Meditation: “It’s not the miracle of a burning bush that saves us. It’s the paying attention.” – Rev. Mark Feldmeir

Today’s Questions

- Where in your life do you feel stuck in “Midian” right now—and what labels, roles, or expectations might be keeping you from remembering who you truly are?
- What practices help you slow down and pay attention to the places where your heart is still burning—and what might it look like to treat those places as holy ground this week?

Today’s Takeaways

1. We are _____ than the _____ we wear.
2. Holy ground is often found in _____.
3. _____ comes through _____.
