Upcoming Sermon Series

Sheesh: Cultivating Wonder in a Monochrome World
January 11 – February 15

“Sheesh” is more than an expression of surprise—it’s a recognition that life is filled with moments that take our breath away, if only we notice them. This series challenges us to break free from the autopilot of modern life and cultivate a heart that marvels at God’s presence in both the extraordinary and the ordinary. Through six transformative weeks, we’ll explore ancient spiritual practices that awaken wonder. Join us as we trade our tired, monochrome existence for a life painted with wonder, meaning, and divine surprise.

Sermon Reflection and Thoughts on the New Year

Words for Meditation: “They saw a star, and they were not content to admire it; they followed it.” – St. John Chrysostom (347-407 CE), Homily VI on the Gospel of Matthew

- What are some “stars” in your own life—questions, longings, disruptions, or moments of beauty—that have asked for your attention? How do you usually respond when something unsettles or invites you?
- In what ways does truly seeing another person—especially someone vulnerable or overlooked—change what becomes possible between you and them?
- What might it look like for you—or for the church—to live “by another way” after seeing Christ at the table and in the world?
