Advent Sermon Series

Arrival: A Journey Through the Season of Expectation
November 30 – December 24

In a world marked by uncertainty, division, and constant noise, we yearn for signs that God is still breaking through—still showing up in unexpected ways to make good on ancient promises. Arrival explores the profound truth that God doesn't wait for perfect conditions to enter our lives. Hope arrives in seasons of waiting. Peace arrives amid chaos. Joy arrives independent of our circumstances. Love arrives in the most inhospitable places. And Light arrives to dispel every darkness.

Sermon Reflection

Words for Meditation: “The least of things with a meaning is always worth more in life than the greatest of things without it.” – Carl Jung

Today's Questions

- Where in my life am I chasing happiness up the ladder, and what might it look like to pause long enough to receive the deeper joy God is offering me?
- In what valley or humble place is God inviting me to see with new eyes—eyes that can recognize joy rising where I least expected it?

Today's Takeaways

1. Joy runs deeper than _____.
2. Joy rises from the _____ of our lives.
3. Joy is born when we trade the _____ for a _____.
