First Sunday of Epiphany/ Baptism of Jesus

INTRODUCTION – Our re-creation in baptism is an image of the Genesis creation, where the Spirit of God moved over the waters. Mark's gospel makes clear that it is the Spirit's movement that distinguishes Jesus' baptism from John's. The Spirit has come upon us as upon Jesus, calling us God's beloved children and setting us on Jesus' mission to re-create the world in the image of God's vision of justice and peace.

THANK YOU FOR JOINING US TODAY FROM HOME.

We gather in unity with others in-person and a virtual way.

(inspired by Mark 1:4-11,)

P O God of many names and continuing Creativity,
ALL We come to the water.
P Seeking you to worship and honor you.
ALL We come to you from many places, with many burdens.
P You go through water and fire before us, with us.
ALL We trust your words, "Do not be afraid."
P You call us by name and claim us.
ALL We acknowledge the power in that naming and claiming.
P You declare us worthy and empower us.
ALL We soak in your grace and power, your redeeming Word still speaking to us, Still claiming us.
P Your light shines in the darkness, and the darkness does not overcome it.
ALL Let us worship the one whose redeeming Word still speaks to us, still claims us. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P Holy God, creator of light and giver of goodness, your voice moves over the waters. Immerse us in your grace, and transform us by your Spirit, that we may follow after your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
ALL Amen.

SHARING OF PEACE

GOD'S WORD

FIRST READING

Genesis 1: 1-5

Introduction – Out of chaos, God's word brings order. Out of the formless void, God brings light. This familiar story was good news for the Israelites, who experienced much chaos in their history. It remains good news for us. God created and continues to create new life. God still speaks a holy Word to us.

At the outset, when God created the universe,
the earth was lifeless and shapeless;
a deep ocean of chaos, shrouded in darkness;
brooded over by the Spirit of God.

Then God called for light, and on God's word, light appeared.
God saw that light was a good thing,
and separated it from the darkness.
God named the light Day, and the darkness Night.
Evening passed and morning came;
the first day was done.

All Thanks be to God.

What is Pastor cooking up today?
"Baptized, We Live!"

THE HOLY GOSPEL according to St. Mark.

Mark 1:4-11

ALL Alleluia. Let the peace of Christ rule in our hearts,* and let the word of Christ dwell in you richly. Alleluia!
(Col. 3:15, 16)

Introduction - Mark's gospel reports the story of Jesus' baptism with some irony: the one on whom the Spirit descends is himself the one who will baptize others with the Holy Spirit.

⁴John the baptizer showed up in the wilderness, proclaiming God's word to people. He called them to be baptized, to completely turn their lives around and receive God's forgiveness for their ruinous ways.

⁵Owning up to their toxic ways and wrongdoing, people from Jerusalem and all the rural districts of Judea were flocking out to him for baptism in the Jordan River, promising to reform their ways. ⁶Now John was dressed in rough clothes of camel's hair and animal skins, with a leather belt around his waist. He lived off the land eating locusts and wild honey. ⁷He proclaimed the core message, "The one who comes after me is more powerful than I am; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie his sandals. ⁸I only baptize you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

⁹During those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. ¹⁰The moment he came up from the water, he saw the heavens split open and the Spirit coming down like a diving dove and taking hold of him. ¹¹It was then that a voice from heaven declared, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

P The Gospel of the Lord

All Praise to You O Christ.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

- What difference does it make, in your heart and mind, that Jesus is baptized? What is powerful about this moment in Christ's life?
- From the beginning, God's powerful word brings order to chaos. How might hearing God's word meant for you inform or speak to your situation? To the world's situation?
- How do you think of your baptism? What daily impact does it have on your life? What words do you need to activate your daily baptismal living?
- Our Advent bags contained "Star Words" (words that might guide us throughout the upcoming year). How will your word help you not "keep silent"? How will it shape how you tell God's kingdom story?
