

“LIGHT OF THE WORLD” . . . A STUDY OF THE GOSPEL OF JOHN
Get in the Game (75th Anniversary)
The Glorious Gospel Invitation – Its Impact on Believers
 John 7:37–39 — Pew Bible page 583

(Large print copies available at the tables on both sides of the Worship Center)

The _____ and _____ days of the Feast of Booths (both falling on the sabbath) held special significance.

Sometime during the priest's procession from the Pool of Siloam to the pouring of water on the altar, Jesus stood up so He could be seen and proclaimed in a loud voice the message recorded in John 7:37-39.

Everyone has a God-created _____ within them that can be either carnally or spiritually filled. Romans 16:17-18; Philippians 3:18-20; Isaiah 55:1-2; John 7:37-39

Though there is no direct scripture in the Old Testament to which Jesus refers, the theme of water was popular in Judaism (Psalm 78:15-16; 105:40-41; Isaiah 43:20, 48:21), and symbolized God's provision can _____ the threat of drought and disaster.

When Moses struck the rock at Meribah, through it God provided physical water (Numbers 20:8-11). The Apostle Paul explains _____ as the rock that accompanies us and provides everlasting water (I Corinthians 10:4).

Those who drink from the Fountain which is Christ receive _____.

Those who abide with and continue drinking from Christ experience an ongoing filling of the Holy Spirit's power and leading (Ephesians 5:18-21). Christ's overflowing fountain of living water then pours out to others.

God saved you for His glory! He saved you to . . .

The metaphor Jesus uses in John 7 is a portrait of “_____ responsibility.”

We are to consistently come to Jesus in our thirst. He fills us to overflowing by His Holy Spirit, pouring us out to others. II Timothy 4:6

Our Response... to Christ, Faith's 75th Anniversary, E³, and God's presence and provision in the past, present, and future.

Pray For Israel and Ukraine

We welcome each of you today as we celebrate our 75 years of ministry and missions here and around the world. Organized in 1950, the church moved in 1976 to our present location from a site in the Faith Village addition (at the intersection of Abbott and Thomas streets west of Ben Milam Elementary School). Our special guest today is Wichita Falls' Mayor Tim Short. At the end of this service we will take a historic photograph of the entire congregation before going to our Family Life Center for our family meal. What a great day for Faith Baptist Church! (Our appreciation to Casey Yoder of Casey Oliver Photography for the photo.)
