SERVING

How can we love and serve our homeless neighbors?

By attending the Engaging Homelessness Training! October 17-18 at Trellis Church

This training series covers key areas in engaging homelessness including insights from experts, and real-life stories from formerly homeless individuals that show change is possible. We want each attendee to walk away with a deeper understanding of homelessness and actionable steps to take. Tickets are FREE. Snacks and lunch will be provided. The Seattle Union Gospel Mission has their own registration page for this event, please Get your ticket(s) at: <https://ehtrainingtrellischurch.planningpod.com/>

YOUTH HIGHLIGHT

CONNECTING

MEET YOUR HOUSE CHURCH SERVANT LEADERS!

Servant Leader of the month: Tom Osborn

Tom and his wife, Karen, have been a part of Trellis Church since the fall of 2007. He has served as Assistant Pastor, Elder and a House Church Leader in Redmond, WA for much of that time. Karen enjoys children's ministry in the church and pickleball whenever she can find the time. Tom likes handyman stuff, bass fishing and golf. They have 4 grown children and 5 grandchildren.

Join a House Church today - Fill out this Connection Form to get connected with a Servant Leader near you.

LOVING

Join Us in Congratulating the Junker Family!

Jonathon and Melissa welcomed their beautiful baby boy, Nolan, into the world on September 2nd. Let's come together to bless and LOVE on this new family of three by taking them a meal!

You can find the link for their meal train in the NEWSwire or our private Facebook group.

Go to www.takethemameal.com.
