Title: Disciple Making (Discussion class)

Teacher: Adam Wilson, Scott Bogoski, & Jonathan Palk (111-113A)

Have you ever wanted to study the Bible one-on-one with someone but didn't know where to start?

We've all heard the Great Commission—to go and make disciples—but how many of us are actively living it out? What holds us back? Is it fear of not knowing enough? Fear of rejection? Worry about how it might affect our relationships?

The truth is, we all have our reasons—or excuses. But what if you were given hands-on training and practical tools to confidently share your faith and walk with someone toward Jesus?

This class is not for the faint of heart. You'll be challenged. You'll be stretched. You'll likely be asked to step out of your comfort zone each week. But if it meant that someone in your life heard and responded to the Good News of Jesus, wouldn't it be eternally worth it?

Who is the one person God has placed on your heart who needs to hear about Jesus? In this class, you'll learn how to start spiritual conversations, build trust, and plant seeds that could one day lead to saving faith.

Come be equipped. Come be encouraged. Let's change the world—one soul at a time.

Title: Introduction to New Testament

Teacher: Tim Theiss, Derek Dunbar, Larry Cline (115A)

We are continuing our new series Foundations in Christianity. This series is designed for folks with little to no Bible experience, but open to anyone who would like a “refresher” in the basics of the Bible and our core beliefs. We will be continuing an Introduction to the Old Testament through August focusing on the overarching narrative of the Old Testament and how these stories combine to help us understand and anticipate Jesus Christ. Introduction to the New Testament highlighting our Lord Jesus will begin in September and continue through the end of 2025. Then we'll continue with a class detailing our core beliefs called Hardin Valley: Who we Are (formerly called Hardin Valley 101). The final class in this series will be taught beginning in January 2026.

Title: Galatians

Teacher: Mitchel Routh (138R)

Before sending back Philemon. Before the riot in Ephesus. Before tent making in Corinth. There was the power struggle in Galatia. Former Celts are converting to the new church in masses, and what was once just a Jewish movement is about to be redefined forever. Questions will arise such as, "how are we saved?", "is Torah useless now?", and "without law, how do I live my life?" These are questions that have continued to grow in relevance to modern day. Join us we study the law and how Paul says it applies to our Christian lives.

Title: Exodus, Part 1 (Women's Class)

Teacher: Rochelle Mayes (140R)

The exodus of the Israelites shapes our understanding of the whole Bible, its themes reverberating all the way to Revelation. Israel's story is our story: the same God who delivered Israel also delivers all those He loves from slavery to sin; lifts our eyes to the promised land He has prepared where we dwell with I AM and worship Him as the one true God.
