

Serving as Family

With the school year starting, make some homemade cards or small posters to share a blessing or good thought for your teacher or another staff member at your school. If you are homeschooled, make one for a special person in your neighborhood. Hand deliver the card/poster to the person. A suggested card picture is below.

