It All Begins With...

John 17:3, Psalm 37:4, Isaiah 43:7

To begin:

What would be your origin story?

OR

What defines you?

Before you proceed:

First, as you can, read John 17:3, Psalm 37:4, Isaiah 43:7 aloud in your group. If you have time, read it aloud a second time - from a different Bible translation. If you have time, read it aloud a third time - from an even different Bible translation.

As you begin your discussion, pray and ask God to speak to your group. Notice, what may God be highlighting for your discussion and learning?

Now that you have read the text together and prayed, what points and questions arise from your group? Spend plenty of time in your group to address these points and questions. Explore and see how God may give guidance in the discussion. The following are further questions you may use to guide your interaction with the text.

- What ties these three passages together?
- What does it mean to know God?
- How can we know that we are bringing glory to God?
- Which of these three passages is speaking to you, and why?
- How can you carry it into the week ahead?
