4. Why does Adam only become afraid once he hears the sound of the LORD God? How can you relate in realizing separation or wrong in your life?
5. What revelation or truth has the LORD God shown you through the discussion of the passage?
6. What are all the ways you are “naked and afraid” and “hiding” right now? How might God want you to realize once more that He sees all as it is and wants you to “return to Him” with all your heart? Take time to reflect on these questions silently in your group, preparing to turn your realizations to prayer silently.
7. Read aloud Joel 2:12-16. Pray together silently and then aloud together as it flows from your time together. Are you led to respond in any way as a result?
