

About Today's Guest Speaker:

Dr. Steve Pardue teaches theology and directs the ThM/PhD in Theological Studies at the International Graduate School of Leadership and Asia Graduate School of Theology. He is the author or co-editor of 11 books, most recently, Why Evangelical Theology Needs the Global Church.

He grew up in Mindanao and was baptized and discipled in the Filipino church before moving to the US for university and graduate school. After earning a PhD at Wheaton College, he returned to Manila. He is married to Teri, and they have four children (Ava, Lucy, Simon, Ivy) who are grateful to have found a church home at UCM.

PAPURI! Music Ministry: A Legacy of Worship

PAPURI! is the official music arm of Far East Broadcasting Company Philippines (FEBC) and a trailblazer in the development of Original Pilipino Christian Music (OPCM). Since its founding in 1978, PAPURI! has been driven by a deep desire to proclaim the Gospel through original Filipino worship songs—timeless pieces like “Sapagkat ang Diyos ay Pag-ibig,” “Jesus,” “Pag-ibig ang Susi ng Lahat,” and “Dakilang Katapatan.”

From its early days on the airwaves to its enduring presence in churches and communities, PAPURI! has grown into a beloved ministry that continues to touch lives across generations. Its music is known for heartfelt lyrics, rich Filipino harmonies, and messages that speak of faith, hope, and love—resonating deeply with the Filipino soul.

But PAPURI! is more than just a collection of songs. It is a community of songwriters, arrangers, singers, and musicians, united by a calling to glorify God and build up the Church. Through every melody and message, PAPURI! reflects the heart of a people who remain resilient, prayerful, and joyful even in the face of trials.

Now entering a new season, PAPURI! continues to inspire through its Classics, new compositions, younger generations of music ministers, and live ministry engagements and partnerships—reminding us all that praise is not merely a sound, but a life lived in worship.
