Movie Musical GOAT Onstage in Great Hall

The “Greatest Movie Musical of All Time” is faithfully and lovingly adapted by Broadway legends, Betty Comden and Adolph Green. Each unforgettable scene, song and dance is accounted for, including the show-stopping title number, complete with an onstage rainstorm!

Singin’ in the Rain has all the makings of a Tinseltown tabloid headline – the starlet, the leading man and a love affair that could change lives and make or break careers! In silent movies, Don Lockwood and Lina Lamont are a hot item but, behind the scenes, things aren’t always as they appear on the big screen!

Filled with every memorable moment from the film and a downpour of unforgettable showstoppers, including title song “Singin’ in the Rain,” “You Stepped Out of a Dream,” “Moses Supposes,” “All I Do Is Dream of You,” “Make ’Em Laugh,” “Beautiful Girl” and “Broadway Melody.”—MTIshows.com

Welcome!

Come on With the Rain, I'm Ready for Love

Our incredible FUMC cast and crew of “Singin’ in the Rain” welcome you to spend the next 150 minutes or so enjoying a show that is not only about resilience but also about keeping that joy during challenging times in our lives. I don’t think we could have picked a better show for this summer in our community.

For the last five weeks these incredible people have come together to support each other, to fundraise school supplies, to work hard on all the aspects of our performance and to find and give joy through dancing, singing, acting, costume making, set building, lighting and sound design and more.

We invite you to find joy in the stories, the teamwork, and the celebration of creativity that has brought this production to life. Thank you for joining us and for supporting our journey — may this performance and a little bit of H₂O bring you a little bit of happiness and also to inspire you to reconnect to joy in your own lives .

Charlotte Eldringhoff, 13, Third Assistant Director. Charlotte is an eighth grader at Huntington Middle School and is the daughter of Casey and David Eldringhoff. The San Marino native is making her FUMC stage debut tonight and is a school stage veteran of "Beauty and the Beast" and "Aladdin." Her favorite "Singin'" memory is watching rain fall onstage for the first time. Charlotte likes Pinterest, Instagram, YouTube, basketball, Ariana Grande, Taylor Swift, and her goldendoodle puppies Sonny and Cleo.

Jack Eldringhoff, 12, Mary's Date. Jack is a seventh grader at Huntington Middle School. He lives in San Marino with his parents Casey and David Eldringhoff. Jack is making his FUMC stage debut and previously appeared in a school staging of "Beauty and the Beast." Jack is active in Children's Choir, Handbells, Boy Scouts, basketball, football, track, piano, trumpet and French horn. His favorite "Singin'" time is dancing with the cast and feeling confident in himself. Jack is in his school's top two bands—Wind Ensemble and Jazz Band.

Emily Goldstein, 6, Dance Group B. Emily lives in Burbank with her parents Holly Goldstein and Dan Ing. Emily is active in FUMC Sunday School and Children's Choir. This is Emily's second appearance on the FUMC stage after

"Honk!" Emily's favorite "Singin'" memory is seeing the rain. Emily has her first wiggly tooth.

Langston Goldstein, 6, Dance Group B. Langston is a first grader. This summer he is appearing in his seventh consecutive FUMC show. His first was Newsies, where he was pushed across the stage in a vintage stroller. He enjoys reading, swimming, baseball, and all things dinosaur!

Marlowe Goldstein, 4, Dance Group B. Marlowe is excited to finally be joining her older brother in Elementary school this fall as she enters TK. This is Marlowe's fourth consecutive FUMC summer musical appearance. Marlowe loves music and dancing, unicorns and rainbows, and being in charge. She also loves singing "All I Do Is Dream Of You" non-stop.

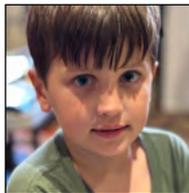

Nora Goldstein, 8, Dance Group B. Nora is a third grader and lives in Burbank with her parents Dan Ing and Holly Goldstein. Nora is active in FUMC Children's Choir. This is her fifth FUMC summer musical with credits in "Honk!" "42nd Street," "The Wizard of Oz" and "State Fair." Nora's favorite "Singing" memories are the real rain and dancing "Beautiful Girl" with Savannah.

William Harbison, 13, Olga's Date. William is an eighth grader at Blair Middle School. He lives in Pasadena with his parents Kenyon and Caitlin Harbison. William is making his FUMC stage debut tonight but is a stage veteran in "Mamma Mia," "Guys and Dolls" and "As You Like It." William is active in ballet, jazz and hip hop dance. His favorite "Singin'" memory is seeing the rain at night for the first time. His favorite movies are "Sinners" and "About Time."

Poppy Harman, 14, Party Girl. Poppy is a freshman at Blair High School and lives in Altadena. She is the daughter of Kirsten Harman and Ty Harman. Poppy appeared FUMC staging of "Honk!" and has school cast and crew credits for "Macbeth," "High School Musical," "Romeo and Juliet," "Guys and Dolls," "Mamma Mia" and "As You Like It." Poppy is active in dance and horseback riding. Her best "Singin'" memory is trying all the fun costumes.

Owen Hiscocks, 5, Dance Group B. Owen is a kindergartner at Rockdale Elementary School. He lives in Los Angeles with his parents Emma and Daniel Hiscocks. This is Owen's second show after "The Sound of Music" and he is active in the Cherub Choir. His favorite "Singin'" time is petting Alice the dog and watching Claire and Alex and the cast perform "You Stepped Out of a Dream" Owen's favorite movie is "The Lorax."

Kendall In, Workman, Adult Cast Group. Kendall

is semiretired, lives in Pasadena with his wife Lydia, and has two adult sons Bryan and Wesley. Kendall has only been a member of FUMC for about 32 years. He previously appeared in FUMC musicals "Honk!" "42nd Street," "The Sound of Music," "We've Gotta Sing!" "Virtualoso," "Newsies," "Wizard of Oz," "Mary Poppins," and "Bye Bye Birdie." His favorite "Singin'" memory was texting Lydia to join the cast. Kendall just finished a labyrinth in the back yard.

Lydia In, Charlie Chaplin, Adult Cast Group. Lydia is an assistant professor of clinical physical therapy at USC Keck and Norris hospitals and treats cancer patients. Lydia has been a member of FUMC Pasadena for 33 years. She is married to Kendall, lives in Pasadena and has two adult sons Bryan and Wesley. Lydia returns to the FUMC stage after appearing in "The Sound of Music." Her favorite "Singin'" moment is analyzing the gait pattern of the Tramp. Lydia loves UCLA Football and saying Go Bruins!

Dylan Jaffe, 11, Premiere Attendee Group, Dance Group A. Dylan is a sixth grader at Blair Middle School. He lives in Altadena with his parents Amy and Steve Jaffe. Dylan is making his FUMC stage debut tonight after being in the audience and watching his sister onstage for many years. Dylan loves football and basketball and recently scored 40 points for his hoops team.

Grace Jaffe, 17, Lina Lamont. Grace is a senior at Blair High School. She lives in Altadena with her parents Amy and Steve Jaffe. Grace appeared in FUMC's productions of "Honk!" "42nd Street," "The Sound of Music," "We've Gotta Sing!" "Virtualoso," "Newsies," "Wizard of Oz" and "State Fair," and is a veteran of Theatre 360, Pasadena Playhouse Teen Alliance and school productions of "Mamma Mia," "As You Like It," "Hades Town," "King Lear," "Spring Awakening," "Guys and Dolls," "Romeo and Juliet," "High School Musical," and "Into the Woods." Grace is active in FUMC Youth Group, Choir and Handbells. Her favorite "Singin'" time is being in the show with her brother. Grace just took New York Broadway by storm.

Gemma Kamps, 4, Dance Group B. Gemma will attend Benjamin Franklin Elementary School in the fall. She lives in Glendale with her parents Gloria and Justin Kamps. Gemma is making her FUMC stage debut tonight and is active in Cherub Choir, soccer, swimming, ballet, tap, jazz dance and piano. Her favorite "Singin'" memory is jumping in puddles. Gemma likes rice, beans, tuna and s'mores, Pink Pony Club, PBS Kids app and whistling (fake but sounds real).

Joshua Keim, R.F. Simpson. Joshua is a voice actor, assistant kindergarten teacher and writer. Josh is originally from Neuss, Germany and joined the "Singin'" cast after a friend fervently insisted. This is Josh's FUMC debut but is a stage veteran with credits of "Singin' in the Rain," "Clue," "Wit," "The Throne Room," "The Play That Goes Wrong" and "All in the Timing." Josh was the first cast member to be fully memorized by two whole weeks. That's what his voice actually sounds like. In reality he is shy and quiet.

Mila Llerenas, 13, Second Assistant Director. Mila is an eighth grader at Blair Middle School. She lives in Pasadena with her parents Michelle Basa-Llerenas and Sergio Llerenas. Mila appeared in FUMC's "Honk!" and is a veteran of the stage in "Guys and Dolls," "Romeo and Juliet," "Children of Eden," "As You Like It," "Mamma Mia" and "TBGS." She is active in Girl Scouts, hip hop and jazz dances,

"Singin' in the Rain" Directors, Musicians, Designers and Crew

Megan Goldstein, Artistic Director. Megan is VP of Sync Licensing, at BMG, a musician, and FUMC Director of Handbells. Megan and her husband Joseph Butler are the proud parents of 6-year-old Langston and 4-year-old Marlowe (both in tonight's show). Megan has worn many summer musical hats over the years (including actor and choreographer), but in every case loves seeing the cast bond and build friendships as the show is put together. Watching the larger church community rally around this production in creative ways to make magic happen is truly a joy!

Chrissa Hayes, Vocal Director. Chrissa is a middle school special education teacher. She has grown up at FUMC and is active as Director of Children's Cantate Choir and Drama Committee. Chrissa appeared or worked in 22 previous FUMC summer musicals starting with "Alice in Wonderland." Chrissa's favorite "Singin'" experience is carpooling with Kendall and Lydia. Chrissa and her husband Taylor Altice spend lots of time chasing their 14-month-old daughter Eva.

Holly Goldstein, Choreographer. Holly does consumer insights for Adobe Inc. She has spent a lifetime as a member of FUMC. Holly lives in Burbank with husband Dan Ing and their daughters Nora and Emily. Holly has spent countless summers at FUMC as actress, choreographer and orchestra player. Holly's best "Singin'" memory is the dancing, of course!

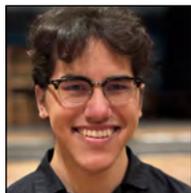

Alonso Pirio, Orchestra Conductor, Pianist. Alonso is as composer for film, TV and games, a Grammy-winning performer. He grew up listening and writing music from a wide variety of styles, including jazz, R&B, rock, Afro-Cuban, funk, and hip-hop. Classically trained, he holds a degree from UCLA's Herb Alpert School of Music. As an educator, Alonso teaches Media Music and Concert Music/Arranging at Culver City High School, through their AVPA Department. He is an avid hiker and traveler who lives and works in his home city of Los Angeles.

Eric Dyson, Technical Director. Eric is a TV and film writer-director-camera operator. Eric has been a member of FUMC for 27 years. He has produced many special effects for past summer musicals including a flying machine, a rear projection smoke screen, floating city scape windows, interactive video projection and a witches fireball. Eric lives in Pasadena with his wife Darla and they have three grown children Ruby, Olivia and Henry.

Josiah Sun, Chief Costume Designer. Josiah is a fashion design student at PCC. The Pasadena resident has been involved in 10 FUMC summer productions starting with "Mary Poppins" as an actor and the last three years as costume designer. Josiah is active in Adult Handbells and sewing his own clothes. His best "Singin'" memory is working downstairs and enjoying the wonderful company of the costuming crew.

Roman Favela, Lighting Designer. Roman is a senior at Blair High School. Roman was part of the Lighting Tech team for FUMC's "Honk!" and "42nd Street," and worked on PUSD's All-Star Musical Production of "Hades Town," and "Into the Woods" with the Pasadena Playhouse. Roman also has school production credits for "Mamma Mia," "As You Like It," "Guys and Dolls" and "Romeo and Juliet."

Arnold Bueso, Scene Design Consultant and Scenic Charge Artist. Arnold is on the Design Faculty at Cal State L.A. He was assisted by Scenery Technicians and Scenic Painters: Jayden Lozada, BA in Art and Theatre at CSULA, David Yang, BA in Theatre Technology at CSULA, and Brianna Sandoval, BA in Theatre Arts at CSULA.

Senior Moments For Summer Stage Actor

Acting onstage is second nature for recent high school graduate Allyson De Leon. The Marshall Fundamental Secondary School alumna has appeared in eight previous FUMC shows starting with “Mary Poppins,” along the way with her sisters Hannah and Mia, dad David, cousin Marie and Uncle Jonathan. Allyson has also appeared in several school productions including “Annie.”

Allyson lives in Pasadena along with mom Meredith, dad and sisters. Allyson was active in FUMC

Allyson De Leon

Youth Group, Choir, Handbells, Tour, and Vacation Bible School.

Allyson plans to study biology at Cal Poly Pomona in the fall.

Some of Allyson’s best memories of the last 11 years of shows are “Mary Poppins” singing and dancing with her sisters for the first time, “Newsies” so she could be in all the dance numbers, “42nd Street” making her tap dancing debut, and “Honk!” getting a lead role with fun songs.

Best of luck in the future and break a leg tonight!

Baking a Cake and Popping Out of It Too

Steve Zeider has had many skills and jobs over the years. Woodcarver, welder, bus driver, brake-man and teacher. Every July for a while now, Steve has been the props guy for FUMC’s summer musicals.

This year’s big ticket item is a giant cake that (spoiler alert) Kathy Selden pops out of. Steve baked the two-tiered 68-inch tall confectionery with frame made from previously-used materials of wood, plywood, canvas and rollers found around his workshop.

A team of decorators—including Clark

Steve baking a cake.

Wiant, Ellen Wiant, Julie Wiant—is handling the “frosting” parts of the cake and its transformation into bar and fountain.

Over the years Steve has built a crocodile for “Peter Pan,” printing press for “Newsies,” and video camera for “Honk!”

Steve is originally from Reseda and has been a member of FUMC for about 40 years. Steve and his wife Pat have a son, Mitchell, and grandson, James. Steve likes making and fixing things, reading, and taking yearly trips up to Owens Valley.

‘Singin’ Cast Supports ACAC, Friends in Deed

The cast and crew of “Singin’” collected school supplies and held a bake sale for the Adopt a Child Abuse Caseworker (ACAC) program, and collected tuna and peanut butter for Friends in Deed as part of its mission outreach.

For ACAC, a big box filled with pens, pencils, erasers, paper, notebooks, crayons, markers, backpacks, and other classroom essentials were collected. Also for ACAC, proceeds from the bake sale held on July 13 during Fellowship Hour brought in $366, which went to purchase backpacks and markers.

ACAC collects funds and recruits volunteers to sponsor, in cooperation with the Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS), many year-round programs including the Back-to-School supply drive, Thanksgiving food baskets and Christmas stockings.

“Doing together what we cannot do alone,” Friends in Deed, comprised of local civic and religious congregations of all faiths, supports the Food Pantry, Bad Weather Shelter, The Women’s Room, Homeless Outreach and Eviction Prevention. Visit www.friendsindeed.org/fid.

FUMC Pasadena's 53rd Summer Musical

Some trivia for tonight's show:

This is the second time FUMC is staging "Singin' in the Rain," last time was 2003. In that staging, Kathy Selden was played by our choreographer, Holly Goldstein.

Amara Peron's father William was also in the cast.

The summer musical always features a live band or orchestra.

No tuition is charged to participants.

The cast ranges in age from 14 months old to a grandmother of seven.

There are 10 performers appearing for the first time tonight on the FUMC stage.

This is the third appearance of Mark Goldstein's high school cheerleading megaphone after "Virtualoso" and "42nd Street."

Many actors in "Beautiful Girl" are kids of the Dulcet Singers a cappella group.

Backstage

A View from 1927 Inside Hollywood

Hollywood Boulevard via Great Hall—Take 47 silent-era movie stars, future starlets, a sidekick, beautiful girls, studio executives and directors, showgirls, policemen, workman, pedestrians and fans, all spending 27 rehearsal days together to learn songs, dances and blocking. The result is “Singin’ in the Rain.” Thank you Megan, Chrissa, Holly, Josiah, Pam, Eric, Alonso, Amoreena and many others who helped direct, choreograph, teach songs, design and make costumes, sets, sound and light systems, conduct and produce while encouraging us—many times with much enthusiasm—to smile, big over-the-top acting, memorize, drink water, get rest, listen, be quiet, take notes and most importantly to have fun. It has been a wonderful cruise down the boulevard, including our marathon rehearsal on Sunday and dress rehearsals on Monday and Tuesday, to get to where we are tonight. So sit back, relax, enjoy the show because the next trolley stop is yours.—Editor
