

Bible Survey
Genesis – Deuteronomy
Week of October 11

- 1. What impacted you the most from the presentation/video? Why?

- 2. In what ways do the foundational books portray elements of an individual and/or corporate spiritual journey?

- 3. Why do you think Christians today should (or should not) continue to study the book of the Torah (Genesis – Deuteronomy)? What is the benefit that comes through this study?

- 4. In your opinion, what do the first five books of the Biblical canon reveal about the nature of God? What about the nature of God's people?

- 5. Think for a moment about all you learned during this session, including the keywords for each book, the foundational figures, and foundational themes. How do all these puzzle pieces come together to give you a big picture of the Torah?

6. In this session, Bert talked about the Seven Foundational Themes (Creation, Judgment, Redemption, People, Leaders, Character, Covenants, Promises). What can we learn about God through the way God relates to His people?
7. What are some ways the Seven Foundational Themes take shape in the Foundational Books? (Think God to people, people to God, people to people).
