

1. Read Luke 8:40-49 again. Put yourself in Jairus' shoes. How would you have felt when Jesus stopped to talk and help that lady?
2. How do you think Jairus felt when found that his daughter had died? How do you think he felt towards Jesus/God? How do you think he felt toward the woman that stopped Jesus?
3. Have you ever had to wait on God to do something in your life? Does anyone want to share what that was? How did you feel as you waited? How did you feel when God did what it was He was going to do?
4. What can you do while you wait on God?
