Consider One Another

In this space between two large holidays, I want to invite us to pull back and consider one another. Of course, there are plenty of errands to run and plans to make for the upcoming special events. But almost certainly, there are people you know who are experiencing the Holidays a little differently this year. Who do you know who has lost a close friend or family member in the last year? Who is going through a health battle that might prevent them from their normal ways of participation? Who has moved or relocated and might need a group to welcome them?

Because holidays are vulnerable times, we have a good opportunity to double the effectiveness of our efforts to show love, kindness, and inclusion. People appreciate these efforts even more when they are feeling the need for a caring community. Have a wonderful next couple of weeks as we finish out 2024. Don't forget that there is still time to make a positive impact!

~Mark Adams

Christmas Caroling

Everyone is invited to join us TONIGHT for an evening of caroling to our shut-ins as well as cookie delivery! We will gather at Tusculum in the chapel at 4:30 p.m. to assign groups. We will head out by 5:00 p.m. to start caroling. Everyone (all ages) is invited to join us! Our goal is to have groups of at least 6-8 individuals with a plan for each group to visit 3-4 houses. (We have an estimated 30 stops to make!) If you are willing to lead a group, please let Derek Robinson know. After caroling, all are welcome to come enjoy dinner at Wings to Go (in Nolensville) to share about your caroling experiences! Look forward to spreading some Christmas cheer with you all!
