A Different Kind of Gift Giving

There are only 96 shopping days left until Christmas! Those words drive fear into many of us as we realize the gift-giving season is near upon us. However, the giving of gifts does not have to be reserved for holidays or birthdays. We all have gifts that we can give each day that will encourage and build up the church.

Paul points out that we all have gifts to give that vary from one person to another. Some of these gifts include prophecy, service, teaching, exhortation, financial contributions, leadership, and acts of mercy. (Romans 12:6-8). Paul mentions a few additional gifts in a similar passage in I Corinthians 12. And much like the individual parts of our bodies are important for the whole body to function well, everyone needs to use their particular gift or gifts for the whole church to function well. Everyone is different and has different gifts, so we need them all engaged and working together in the church.

Do you know what your gift is? And are you using your gift for the good of the church? Several questionnaire-based tools are available to help identify spiritual gifts, if you do not know. Just see myself or any of the other elders or ministers and we can help with that. When you know what your gift is, you can look for ways to use it to benefit the church. Our new Ministry Spotlight articles will be identifying ministry areas that may have needs, which your particular gift may help to meet!

Unique Homeless Service Opportunity

We have the opportunity to serve Nashville's homeless through Room in the Inn at one of our sister congregation's building, Woodson Chapel Church of Christ, during January. Ideally we'd like to cover all 5 weekend date in January which would be Friday evenings and early Saturday mornings, if enough folks are interested. Volunteer opportunities include: preparing dinner or breakfast for 16 people (ahead or onsite), serving the meals, preparing sack lunches ahead (kids may want to help), or for Men only—spending the night as hosts. For more details, see/text Sam Peebles—615.969.8253, Kim Peebles—615.969.8223, or email or call the church office.
