

ESL (English as a Second Language)

Mike Dotson & Jake Shoun

Adult 4/5 (Ladies), Adult 6, Adult 7 & Gym

You've likely heard about our ESL (English as a Second Language) classes over the years—but this year, we're bringing a fresh and exciting approach!

We're inviting our Spanish-speaking members to arrive early to warmly welcome new students and begin building relationships even before class starts. Then, at the end of class, come back in to connect again, encourage, and share in conversation.

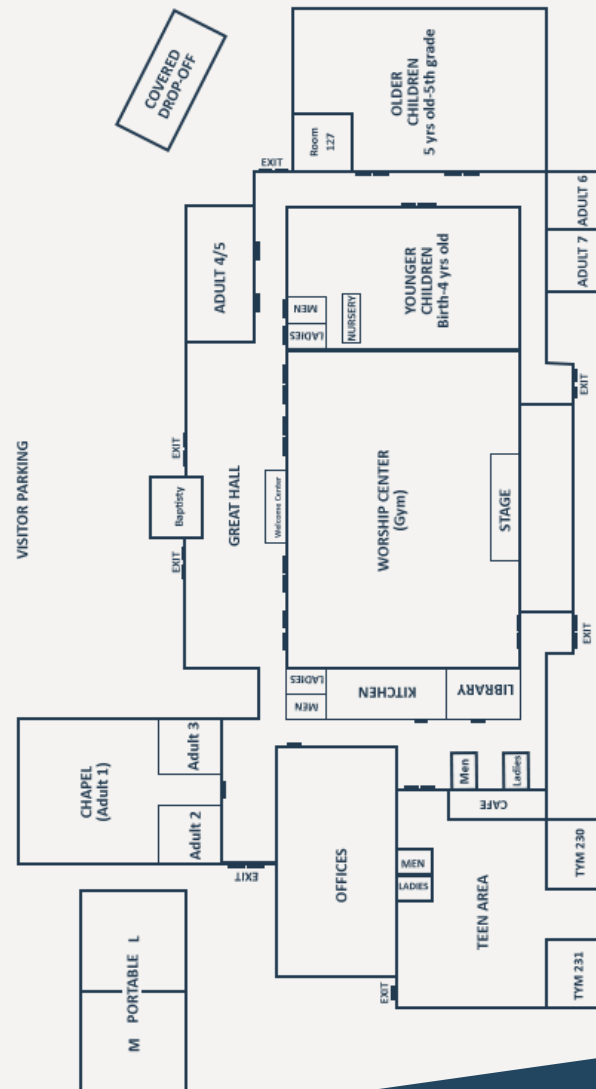

We'd love for you to be part of it!

We're currently looking for teacher's aides—no experience required, just a heart to serve and connect.

Another wonderful way to get involved is through our Spanish-speaking group, which meets twice a month to practice songs in Spanish. The other two weeks, we'll offer a Bible class full of encouragement and learning.

Whether you want to help in the classroom or sing your heart out—"¡Excelente idea!"—there's a place for you.

Twelve Voices Speak

Derek Robinson

Adult 7

In our Bibles, the Old Testament concludes in a series of twelve prophetic writings that we know as the Minor Prophets. In some ancient versions of Scripture, these were grouped together into a combined scroll known as "The Book of the Twelve." Through these prophets, God proclaimed a consistent message through a diverse group of individuals across years of history in different settings from kingdom through captivity and beyond. The message of these prophets addressed their own times but also revealed God's powerful acts to come, and it continues to reach us today. Join us as we examine both what makes these prophets unique as well as some connections between them

Beware of the Choices You Make: There Will Be Consequences

Esther Kennedy

Adult 4/5 (Ladies)

It would be great to believe that all Biblical accounts are joyful, loveable, and had a great ending. But unfortunately, that's not the case. We will be studying three women: Eve, Dinah, and Michal, whose lives were very different and didn't have a happy ending. Get ready for some twists and turns in each of these women's lives. Remember the decisions we make may cause severe consequences not only to ourselves but to others as well. We will be studying from Shannon Bream's: "The Mothers and Daughters of the Bible Speak" and "The Love Stories of the Bible Speak." There is also a workbook for each of these books. You don't have to have either book. There will be questions provided for each class throughout the Quarter.

The Lamb and the Lion: Jesus in Revelation

Will Tidwell

Portable L (Kenekt)

Revelation is often seen as mysterious, symbolic, and even intimidating, but at the center is a powerful unveiling of Jesus Christ. This class will take you through the final book of the Bible seeking transformation. Together, we'll explore how the Lamb who was slain is also the victorious Lion of Judah, and how His story speaks hope, purpose, and courage into our everyday lives. We will move beyond fear and confusion to see the beauty of Jesus in the book of Revelation.

Following the Complete Jesus

Brett Byram

Adult 6

As followers of Christ, we mostly know what Christ taught during his ministry, but it's easy for us to lose sight of the full picture of Jesus teachings. In this class, we'll focus on a handful of Jesus' most difficult teachings (example: parable of the unjust steward) and see if, as a class, we can come to a more complete understanding of Jesus' teachings and in what ways that should change our life.

WEDNESDAY 7:00PM

Feasts and Festivals

Earl Santymire, Coordinator

Chapel

Many Jewish holidays have ancient roots in scripture and continue to hold spiritual significance today. Several of these sacred days are mentioned or alluded to in the Bible. Join us as we explore the biblical and historical foundations of these festivals, as we reflect on how they are still observed by the Jewish people today, and consider how your life fits into God's larger plan.
