Have you completed a Spiritual Health Assessment, yet? If not, please use the link above or scan the QR code with your phone's camera to complete your personal assessment. It should take 5-10 minutes to answer the questions. Paper forms are available in the church office. The assessment encourages personal reflection, and your responses will help FBCT leadership understand where we are in each of our 8 Outcomes.

Clarkston Mission Weekend February 20-22

Please pray for these team members as they serve our neighbors:

The Atlanta suburb of Clarkston, where the Send Relief Ministry Center is located, is one of the most diverse communities in America. Known as the “Ellis Island of the South,” nearly 70% of the population is foreign-born, representing more than 50 countries with more than 100 distinct ethnic groups—all living within 1.4 square miles. This provides tremendous opportunities for churches and individuals to invest in the residents of this unique community.

This weekend’s trip will be an immersive experience at the Send Relief Ministry Center, allowing our team to engage in refugee ministry as well as various ministry outreach projects throughout the Atlanta metro area.

Teams will be participating in a variety of compassion opportunities that can include apartment outreach, food pantry ministry, after-school programs, sports ministry, canvassing, prayer walking, homeless ministry, physical labor, serving at-risk families, and university campus ministry.

Our team will serve alongside team members from several other Tuscaloosa-area churches: Anchor, Capstone, Church of the Oaks, Five Points, North River, Northport Baptist, Safe Haven and Valley View. We will continue to partner with these churches throughout the year to support the work of the Ministry Center in Clarkston as well as seek out ways to better serve the international community here locally.

This Clarkston Partnership is part of our World Mission Offering emphasis for 2026.

It is designed for children who are asking questions and seeking the truths found in the gospel.
