

FAQS

Do the interns get paid?

Yes, the students are provided a small stipend.

What are the age requirements of the program? Students must be between the ages of 18 – 24 to apply to the program and must be high school graduates.

Can the interns get college credit? Yes, if the college advisor and the internship director work together to make sure all requirements are met.

How many hours per week do the interns work? Between 20 and 30 hours per week depending on the ministry and the requirements of their internship.

Is there housing available? Yes, we will make arrangements for students for housing for the ten weeks.

Are all the activities, trips, and training paid for by the internship? Yes, the intern is not responsible for the cost of internship events.

When does the internship begin and end? It begins in mid-May and ends in late July.

When do applications open? Mid - January and remain open until March 1.