THE SONSHINE NEWS

"Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it."
1 Thessalonians 5:24

FROM PREACHER JEFF

⁴⁰One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. ⁴¹He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. ⁴²And he brought him to Jesus... -John 1:40-42a

Sullivan Baptist Church will be hosting Baptist churches across Upper East Tennessee on September 14 for a special rally aimed at reigniting passion for evangelism and prayer. The Who's Your One? Rally is scheduled for 6 p.m. and is a part of a 2026 national prayer and evangelism initiative taking place throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

John Butler, pastor of East Rogersville Baptist Church, is one of the event organizers. His burden for this rally emerged from conversations with SBC leaders and a broader multi-denominational prayer movement focused on reaching one million people for Christ during 2026. Sullivan is blessed to host this rally as our location here in Kingsport provides a central location accessible to churches throughout Upper East Tennessee.

Roc Collins, team lead for evangelism at the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board, and North American Mission Board Vice President of Evangelism, Tim Dowdy, will be guest speakers. The SBC Celebration Choir and the East Rogersville Baptist Church Choir will join together for special worship music. The event will conclude with two prayer times — one focused on church engagement in the campaign and another for personal commitment to pray for specific individuals.

This is NOT just another church meeting. As Bro. Roc Collins has stated, "We desperately need God to move in power across our state. This could be the meeting that sparks revival in Tennessee." The event will challenge everyone to identify "your ONE" — a specific person you will commit to praying for and sharing the gospel with.

This is an opportunity for spiritual renewal not only in East Tennessee, but also in Sullivan Baptist Church. We are blessed to host this rally. Let us become like Andrew. Get ready to find your "ONE" and bring him or her to Jesus.

God loves you, and I love you, -Pastor Jeff

THE SONSHINE NEWS

"Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it."
1 Thessalonians 5:24

FROM PREACHER JEFF

⁴⁰One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. ⁴¹He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. ⁴²And he brought him to Jesus... -John 1:40-42a

Sullivan Baptist Church will be hosting Baptist churches across Upper East Tennessee on September 14 for a special rally aimed at reigniting passion for evangelism and prayer. The Who's Your One? Rally is scheduled for 6 p.m. and is a part of a 2026 national prayer and evangelism initiative taking place throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

John Butler, pastor of East Rogersville Baptist Church, is one of the event organizers. His burden for this rally emerged from conversations with SBC leaders and a broader multi-denominational prayer movement focused on reaching one million people for Christ during 2026. Sullivan is blessed to host this rally as our location here in Kingsport provides a central location accessible to churches throughout Upper East Tennessee.

Roc Collins, team lead for evangelism at the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board, and North American Mission Board Vice President of Evangelism, Tim Dowdy, will be guest speakers. The SBC Celebration Choir and the East Rogersville Baptist Church Choir will join together for special worship music. The event will conclude with two prayer times — one focused on church engagement in the campaign and another for personal commitment to pray for specific individuals.

This is NOT just another church meeting. As Bro. Roc Collins has stated, "We desperately need God to move in power across our state. This could be the meeting that sparks revival in Tennessee." The event will challenge everyone to identify "your ONE" — a specific person you will commit to praying for and sharing the gospel with.

This is an opportunity for spiritual renewal not only in East Tennessee, but also in Sullivan Baptist Church. We are blessed to host this rally. Let us become like Andrew. Get ready to find your "ONE" and bring him or her to Jesus.

God loves you, and I love you, -Pastor Jeff

THE SONSHINE NEWS

"Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it."
1 Thessalonians 5:24

FROM PREACHER JEFF

⁴⁰One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. ⁴¹He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. ⁴²And he brought him to Jesus... -John 1:40-42a

Sullivan Baptist Church will be hosting Baptist churches across Upper East Tennessee on September 14 for a special rally aimed at reigniting passion for evangelism and prayer. The Who's Your One? Rally is scheduled for 6 p.m. and is a part of a 2026 national prayer and evangelism initiative taking place throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

John Butler, pastor of East Rogersville Baptist Church, is one of the event organizers. His burden for this rally emerged from conversations with SBC leaders and a broader multi-denominational prayer movement focused on reaching one million people for Christ during 2026. Sullivan is blessed to host this rally as our location here in Kingsport provides a central location accessible to churches throughout Upper East Tennessee.

Roc Collins, team lead for evangelism at the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board, and North American Mission Board Vice President of Evangelism, Tim Dowdy, will be guest speakers. The SBC Celebration Choir and the East Rogersville Baptist Church Choir will join together for special worship music. The event will conclude with two prayer times — one focused on church engagement in the campaign and another for personal commitment to pray for specific individuals.

This is NOT just another church meeting. As Bro. Roc Collins has stated, "We desperately need God to move in power across our state. This could be the meeting that sparks revival in Tennessee." The event will challenge everyone to identify "your ONE" — a specific person you will commit to praying for and sharing the gospel with.

This is an opportunity for spiritual renewal not only in East Tennessee, but also in Sullivan Baptist Church. We are blessed to host this rally. Let us become like Andrew. Get ready to find your "ONE" and bring him or her to Jesus.

God loves you, and I love you, -Pastor Jeff

THE SONSHINE NEWS

"Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it."
1 Thessalonians 5:24

FROM PREACHER JEFF

⁴⁰One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. ⁴¹He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. ⁴²And he brought him to Jesus... -John 1:40-42a

Sullivan Baptist Church will be hosting Baptist churches across Upper East Tennessee on September 14 for a special rally aimed at reigniting passion for evangelism and prayer. The Who's Your One? Rally is scheduled for 6 p.m. and is a part of a 2026 national prayer and evangelism initiative taking place throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

John Butler, pastor of East Rogersville Baptist Church, is one of the event organizers. His burden for this rally emerged from conversations with SBC leaders and a broader multi-denominational prayer movement focused on reaching one million people for Christ during 2026. Sullivan is blessed to host this rally as our location here in Kingsport provides a central location accessible to churches throughout Upper East Tennessee.

Roc Collins, team lead for evangelism at the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board, and North American Mission Board Vice President of Evangelism, Tim Dowdy, will be guest speakers. The SBC Celebration Choir and the East Rogersville Baptist Church Choir will join together for special worship music. The event will conclude with two prayer times — one focused on church engagement in the campaign and another for personal commitment to pray for specific individuals.

This is NOT just another church meeting. As Bro. Roc Collins has stated, "We desperately need God to move in power across our state. This could be the meeting that sparks revival in Tennessee." The event will challenge everyone to identify "your ONE" — a specific person you will commit to praying for and sharing the gospel with.

This is an opportunity for spiritual renewal not only in East Tennessee, but also in Sullivan Baptist Church. We are blessed to host this rally. Let us become like Andrew. Get ready to find your "ONE" and bring him or her to Jesus.

God loves you, and I love you, -Pastor Jeff

THE SONSHINE NEWS

"Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it."
1 Thessalonians 5:24

FROM PREACHER JEFF

⁴⁰One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. ⁴¹He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. ⁴²And he brought him to Jesus... -John 1:40-42a

Sullivan Baptist Church will be hosting Baptist churches across Upper East Tennessee on September 14 for a special rally aimed at reigniting passion for evangelism and prayer. The Who's Your One? Rally is scheduled for 6 p.m. and is a part of a 2026 national prayer and evangelism initiative taking place throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

John Butler, pastor of East Rogersville Baptist Church, is one of the event organizers. His burden for this rally emerged from conversations with SBC leaders and a broader multi-denominational prayer movement focused on reaching one million people for Christ during 2026. Sullivan is blessed to host this rally as our location here in Kingsport provides a central location accessible to churches throughout Upper East Tennessee.

Roc Collins, team lead for evangelism at the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board, and North American Mission Board Vice President of Evangelism, Tim Dowdy, will be guest speakers. The SBC Celebration Choir and the East Rogersville Baptist Church Choir will join together for special worship music. The event will conclude with two prayer times — one focused on church engagement in the campaign and another for personal commitment to pray for specific individuals.

This is NOT just another church meeting. As Bro. Roc Collins has stated, "We desperately need God to move in power across our state. This could be the meeting that sparks revival in Tennessee." The event will challenge everyone to identify "your ONE" — a specific person you will commit to praying for and sharing the gospel with.

This is an opportunity for spiritual renewal not only in East Tennessee, but also in Sullivan Baptist Church. We are blessed to host this rally. Let us become like Andrew. Get ready to find your "ONE" and bring him or her to Jesus.

God loves you, and I love you, -Pastor Jeff

THE SONSHINE NEWS

"Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it."
1 Thessalonians 5:24

FROM PREACHER JEFF

⁴⁰One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. ⁴¹He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. ⁴²And he brought him to Jesus... -John 1:40-42a

Sullivan Baptist Church will be hosting Baptist churches across Upper East Tennessee on September 14 for a special rally aimed at reigniting passion for evangelism and prayer. The Who's Your One? Rally is scheduled for 6 p.m. and is a part of a 2026 national prayer and evangelism initiative taking place throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

John Butler, pastor of East Rogersville Baptist Church, is one of the event organizers. His burden for this rally emerged from conversations with SBC leaders and a broader multi-denominational prayer movement focused on reaching one million people for Christ during 2026. Sullivan is blessed to host this rally as our location here in Kingsport provides a central location accessible to churches throughout Upper East Tennessee.

Roc Collins, team lead for evangelism at the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board, and North American Mission Board Vice President of Evangelism, Tim Dowdy, will be guest speakers. The SBC Celebration Choir and the East Rogersville Baptist Church Choir will join together for special worship music. The event will conclude with two prayer times — one focused on church engagement in the campaign and another for personal commitment to pray for specific individuals.

This is NOT just another church meeting. As Bro. Roc Collins has stated, "We desperately need God to move in power across our state. This could be the meeting that sparks revival in Tennessee." The event will challenge everyone to identify "your ONE" — a specific person you will commit to praying for and sharing the gospel with.

This is an opportunity for spiritual renewal not only in East Tennessee, but also in Sullivan Baptist Church. We are blessed to host this rally. Let us become like Andrew. Get ready to find your "ONE" and bring him or her to Jesus.

God loves you, and I love you, -Pastor Jeff
