

4) Pray for safety as we travel from Asuncion back to our home at Tesape, where we may arrive home sometime between 8 and 9 am on the 30th. (This is all contingent on making our connections and if we are not all too fatigued.)

5) Pray that we make all our connections and that Jeremy would have safety as he picks us up at the airport and we do an all-night trip home.

6) Praise the Lord for His ever-present peace and the blessing we have enjoyed being with friends and family these last five months. We are overwhelmed by the goodness of God.

Again, thank you for your patience and standing with us in prayer and financial support for the ongoing ministry with the Paĩ people and the Paraguayan Nationals.

Mission Address and webpage:

Partners For Paraguay

174 E Neider Ave #245

Coeur d'Alene, ID 83815

4paraguay.org

Contact us at:

john.windler@nanduti.org.py or barb.windler@nanduti.org.py

Thanks again for your love, care, and prayers.

Windler Final update before our trip

October 28, 2025

It is hard to believe our time in the States has come to a close. Tonight, the board of Directors of Partners for Paraguay will meet, where we trust the Lord will give us wisdom as we have our final meeting for the year 2025. We know that the Lord has plans for each of us, and we trust He will continue to give us wisdom in our unique ministries here and abroad. We will have a few hours to catch our breath after the meeting, then it will be off to the airport in Orlando. We should arrive back in Paraguay sometime after midnight on the 29th, and Jeremy, our son, should be at the airport in Asuncion to pick us up. We are considering traveling all night back to Tesape, where we hope to arrive before 9 a.m. and be settled back into our home once again.

Praise and Prayer

- 1) Praise the Lord for a wonderful time on home assignment. We were blessed and are ready to return home and continue the work in Paraguay.
- 2) In about five hours, we have a board meeting for Partners for Paraguay. Please pray that we would have wisdom as we continue to guide this organization for the glory of God.
- 3) Pray for us as we travel back to Paraguay. We leave Dunnellon, Florida, at 12:30 for the Orlando Airport. We'll catch a flight to Houston, make a connection, and continue on to Panama City, Panama. Then our last connection will take us to the capitol of Paraguay, where we hope to arrive just after midnight.