Worship Notes

...making our worship more meaningful & understandable

If you are tuning in to Cherry Creek, welcome and thank you for worshipping with us on this Sunday morning.

Responsive Readings are one of the most ancient worship practices of God's people. Israel used readings like Psalm 136 as a lively call-and-response. When we engage in responsive readings, we connect with saints who lived long, long ago and share the delightful and creative practice of reading God's word together corporately.

How the Lord's Prayer teaches us to pray. It's very normal for many Christians' prayers to be focused on individual needs and personal life. We're often consumed with praying for our immediate circumstances and the people, places, and events that we most regularly encounter. Praying the Lord's Prayer shapes us to be people who also pray "bigger" prayers. The Lord's Prayer lifts our heads and eyes to see the world a bit more from God's perspective. We pray, "Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name." We begin prayer with worship, reminding ourselves of God's greatness and grandeur. We pray, "Your kingdom come, Your will be done." This reminds us that our prayers are to be echoes of the heart and desires of God. Then, and only then, do we get to the "personal stuff." If you find

Prayer for the Week

Lord Jesus Christ,
Son of God,
have mercy on me,
a sinner.
(Jesus Prayer of the Orthodox Church)

yourself stuck in prayer or just going through the motions, remember what we pray every week and let the Lord's Prayer lift your head.

Giving In response to God's goodness, we are called to offer our whole selves—heart and mind, soul, and strength—in joyful adoration in our daily lives. One way we do that is through giving financially, which you can do in person after the service, by mail or online here: <https://www.elexiogiving.com/App/Giving/cherrycreekpres.org>

May We Pray With You? When we join together in prayer, there is a particular power available from God. If you would like prayer and/or prayer for healing, please come forward after the service to find a pastor or elder and we'd love to pray for you.

Prayer chain If you would like to be kept up-to-date on prayer needs in our church body, please sign up for the CCPC Prayer chain at ccpcprays@cherrycreekpres.org

Assisting in Worship Amanda Matoba, Communications Coord.; Sanctuary Choir; David Knopp & Tech Team; Usher Team
