Worship Notes

...making our worship more meaningful & understandable

If you are tuning in to Cherry Creek, welcome and thank you for worshipping with us on this Sunday morning.

What is an Invocation? We “invoke” God by calling upon Him or making a plea to Him to make Himself present to us. Of course, God is present everywhere, but in our invocation we acknowledge that God displays His presence in a unique and special way when His people gather for worship. Our invocation reminds us that we do not worship by our own power. We are in need of the call of the Father, the blood of the Son, and the quickening of the Holy Spirit to come into God’s presence for worship.

Invocation of the Light: Our sung prayer of illumination reminds us that the purpose of preaching God’s Word is not simply to give insights for living, impress people with our knowledge of Greek, or to tell people they need to try harder. The primary goal is to display the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ (2 Cor. 4:6). The written and preached Word is meant to point us to the riches of the living Word. And because we need the Holy Spirit to open our eyes to the glory of Christ in Scripture, it’s right and good that we ask God for help to do just that. (adapted from Bob Kauflin of Sovereign Grace)
