Dear TBC,

Thank you so much for the Everyday Gospel book and the cup! I am so thankful to have been brought up in this church! This church is what brought me to Christ and I will forever be grateful! One of the things I will miss most in college is coming here.

Love,

Ally Steinburg

Thomasville Baptist Church,

Thank you so much for your prayers, cards, food and kind words during our time of loss.

Blessings to all,

JoAnne Mack and family

Dear Church Family,

Bill and I appreciate the food, cards and prayers since the loss of his sister, Roselyn Martindale.

We're thankful to be a member of a loving and caring church.

Love,

M & Bill Harrison

Thank you church for the blessings and life change I got to experience here. Thank you also for the celebration of my graduation and all that comes with Senior Sunday!

"And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to His purpose." Romans 8:28

From the Pastor's Desk

Next week JJ and I are taking Zoe and Isaac to New Orleans for a few days. I know we will take in some of the normal things a tourist will do in New Orleans like some good cajun restaurants with zydeco music, beignets at Cafe Du Monde, an airboat ride or swamp tour, and we have even talked about some golf and a ghost tour. This will actually be the first time since we moved from New Orleans 25 years ago that we have returned together with children. For JJ and I, it will be about much more than doing the fun stuff New Orleans has to offer. It will be a trip down memory lane as we show the kids around where we spent our first three years of marriage. There were some good times, like the influence of the seminary, JJ's teaching job in Chalmette, learning a new culture, and just walking around the French Quarter on a Saturday watching all kinds of strange things. There were also some difficult times, like living in a big city in a small apartment, having to learn Greek and Hebrew, JJ struggling through panic attacks, and us just learning how to be married. But through it all, we both definitely grew closer to the Lord in New Orleans, which is our reminder of God's faithfulness. We all need to have our New Orleans type experiences. We need to be able to go back to a place where God used a time in our lives to grow us up in our relationship with him and teach us to depend more upon him. Is there a place you need to go back to in order to be reminded of God's faithfulness to you?

God Bless,
Bro. Ty
