Deacons

Christ loves the church and gave Him life for her (Ephesians 5:25) And because He loves the church He is most concerned about the spiritual and moral character of those who care for His people. Thus, as a local church we should also be concerned about the spiritual qualifications of our Deacons. In evaluating a candidate for deaconship, you are participating in one of the most important activities affecting the life and future of our church. Please follow the link below to review our Deacon candidates and fill out the qualification survey or pick up a survey at the Welcome Desk.

The Biblical Epic: Old Testament Roots and New Testament Fulfillment

Sunday, December 7th at 10:30am in the East Auditorium

Join us at 10:30 AM each Sunday in the East Auditorium, as we begin a new class taught by Rick Carmickle tracing the story of redemption from its Old Testament roots to its New Testament reality fulfilled in Jesus Christ.

This week's class, The Message of the Prophets, will survey the message of the prophets and their warnings against the Kingdoms of Israel and Judah. With their message of impending invasions and captivity, the prophets not only serve as God's prosecutors against the people for their breach of the covenant, but also as God's messenger of a future restoration with a New Covenant that brings hope found only in Jesus, the promised messiah. Strengthen your biblical understanding with an understanding of the New Covenant that connects the Old Testament to its fulfillment in Jesus.

Marriage Mentoring

Are you newly married and feel you would like a little guidance as your relationship grows and changes? Perhaps you have been married long enough that busyness and complacency has created drift and your relationship is 'just OK'. Have you lost a child, in a blended family, or other major life event and would like to connect with another couple who understands the unique challenges you face? Maybe you are in a healthy marriage but want it to be even better.

LBC has trained marriage mentors with life experiences to encourage you no matter how you would describe your marriage. Mentors will be there to cheer you when you are doing well and help give attention to areas you want to strengthen so that small irritations don't become major issues. There is usually a lot of laughter and sometimes tears, as couples share from their hearts.

The plan is for a mentor and mentee couple to meet once a month for a year to explore topics such as Money, Pace and Priorities, Gratitude and Forgiveness and others. You choose the topic each month.

To find out what people are saying about the Marriage Mentoring program or to learn more, please follow this LINK.

If you would like more information about being mentored please contact one of the following:
