chapter a day

365-day guide and journal

A WORD ABOUT VOLUME 6

When Jesus gave the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20), He expected that His followers would fully give themselves to making disciples of all nations. The first person that we are called to disciple is ourselves. Each of us must make a commitment of the will, by God's grace, to becoming a disciple. Dallas Willard, in the Great Omission, writes:

"The greatest issue facing the world today, with all its heartbreaking needs, is whether those who, by profession or culture, are identified as 'Christians' will become disciples – students, apprentices, practitioners – of Jesus Christ, steadily learning from him how to live the life of the Kingdom of the Heavens into every corner of human existence."

This Chapter A Day focuses our attention on the personal journey of discipleship.

In Matthew 4:19, Jesus says, "Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." From this verse, we get our definition of a disciple:

As we reflect daily on God's Word, we will follow Jesus more closely, experience Him changing our character, and find ourselves living more on mission.

As you read through each chapter, we encourage you to keep the definition of a disciple in mind. You will find these three icons on each page which represent following Jesus, being changed by Jesus, and living on mission with Jesus. As the Spirit speaks to you through His Word, we encourage you to select the icon that reflects what He is saying by either circling, coloring in, or engaging with it in another way. For example, Jesus might be calling you to greater surrender in following Him, or to a specific area He wants to change, or a conviction regarding living a life on mission with Him. Circling or coloring in the appropriate icon – however you choose to mark it – will help reinforce what the Lord is saying to you about becoming His disciple.

As I've prayed about what Old Testament readings would be most helpful for our discipleship journey, I've settled on the Psalms. Ultimately, discipleship is about a relationship with God - a heart connection with our Creator and Savior. The Psalms express overwhelming joy and staggering disappointment. Praise and lament. Thanksgiving and confession. We will read royal Psalms which focus on God at work through Israel's kings. Our vision will expand as we contemplate enthronement Psalms that celebrate the Lord's cosmic reign, especially in enthroning the Messiah as King. The wisdom Psalms will shape our thinking. But mainly, we will learn to praise our God. The Psalms are divided into five books: Psalm 1-41, 42-72, 73-89, 90-106, and 107-150. Our readings will correspond to these divisions.

On this journey of discipleship, as we read the Psalms and New Testament, our hearts will be revealed, our victories and failures will surface, our faith and doubts and hopes will become evident so that Jesus can meet us where we are and change us more into His likeness.

When beginning a book, especially one that you are not familiar with, I encourage you to watch the Bible Project overview of the book. You can watch it on YouTube by typing "Bible Project" followed by the name of the book.

Other resources that I have found helpful are

- Warren Wiersbe's, With the Word: The Chapter by Chapter Bible Handbook
- Henrietta Mear's classic, What The Bible Is All About
- Warren Wiersbe's two volume commentary on the Bible.

And finally, if you fall behind in your reading, simply pick up where you left off. In the words of Eugene Peterson, discipleship is "a long obedience in the same direction." By making your highest priority in life that of becoming more like Jesus, by following Him as a disciple, your life will bear incredible fruit.

From here to the nations.

LEAD PASTOR

We are changed by Jesus as we reflect upon God's Word and receive what He is saying to us, and then respond in faith and obedience. Disciples grow by continually receiving and responding to the Lord.

In your "Chapter A Day" guide, you will find a simple structure that will help you become a self-feeder as you receive and respond. The structure has been adapted from Wayne Cordeiro's book "The Divine Mentor" and is called the SOAP Devotional Method.

SOAP Devotional Method

SCRIPTURE

Write out one verse from the chapter that spoke to you.

OBSERVATION (RECEIVE)

Observe carefully what the verse says. Ponder the context, setting, its meaning, tone and purpose. Write down a few sentences or a paragraph. And most importantly, answer the question, "What is God saying to me?"

APPLICATION (RESPOND)

How does this verse apply to my life? What am I to do with what God is saying to me?

PRAYER

Finish your time in the Word with a personal prayer to God. It might be praise, confession, thanksgiving or intercession. Ask Him to help you apply what you have learned. Turn the page for further guidance on how to approach the prayer moment.

PRAYER: MOTIVE OVER METHOD

CARE NETWORK &
MARRIAGE MINISTRY
DIRECTOR

If you have been tracking with us through Chapter A Day, you are used to the SOAP method with a written prayer at the bottom of the page inviting you to join in corporate prayer. We hope that this has been a launching point for you to go deeper in prayer and develop a rhythm of prayer in your life for yourself, your family, your neighbors and the nations. If you have, then you are undoubtedly understanding the role of prayer to effect change in you and others around you. I say this because prayer is key to becoming more like Jesus.

It might be helpful as you start this year to stop to think about what prayer is. In its simplest form it is conversation with God, our Abba, Father, where we spend time sharing what is on our hearts and listening to what He is saying to us. It is so much more than just coming to Him with a list of needs or wants.

Prayer is sitting with Him and enjoying Him as He works through His Word by the Spirit to heal us, to change us, to convict us and to refine us into the image of Jesus.

Jesus Himself knew the wonder of communing with the Father and made it a habit to get alone with Him. I have often reflected on this, especially in seasons of life when prayer becomes a project or duty instead of a delight and devotion. In these times, I am challenged to evaluate my heart to see what is keeping me from delighting to spend time with Him in prayer. As I have thought about that this year, the Lord has shown me that He is more interested in the motive of my heart than the method of my prayer.

Because this is true, we are free to pray however God has fashioned us. So whether you have a familiar rhythm of prayer like praying through the ACTS (Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, Supplication) or PRAY (Praise, Repent, Ask, Yield) models, or you like to pray scripture, or you find yourself responding to God in song, you are free to commune with God however He fashioned you.

With this in mind, we have limited the number of provided prayers to weekly, to invite you into a deeper time of prayer. This year we will provide a corporate prayer at the beginning of each week, leaving you room to pray for the Church on your own, in your own style of prayer, the remaining six days. We are convinced that as you do this you will see God answer prayers in ways you cannot even imagine for you, your neighbors and the nations.

chapter a day

365-day guide and journal

HOW TO USE THIS JOURNAL

Here are a few helpful suggestions on how to use your journal most effectively.

1. Set aside a specific time and quiet place to meet with God.

You will need your Bible, this journal and a pen.

2. Receive and Respond using the SOAP method.

Read each day's Bible chapter. Write down the specific Scripture through which God is speaking to you. Receive by reflecting on that verse, asking, "What is God saying to me?" Respond by writing down your application, asking, "What is God asking me to do?"

3. Select an icon.

It is your choice to engage with this step or not. From your receive and respond time, consider which if the icons (what part of our definition of a disciple) reflects what the Spirit is saying to you. Then, mark that icon in some way.

4. Pray spontaneously.

End your time with prayer. Talk to the Lord like you would a friend. Praise Him for His goodness, thank Him for things, and ask Him for that which is on your heart. You can keep a list of those for whom you're praying in the back of this journal.

Mark 1

DATE 1/1/24

SCRIPTURE

And Jesus said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you become fishers of men." And immediately they left their nets and followed him. - Mark 1:17-18

OBSERVATION

Jesus issues Simon and Andrew a simple, straightforward challenge to "follow me." With that command comes his promise:
"I will make you fishers of men." Without any hesitation, they immediately leave everything to follow Jesus. Amazing! Jesus has been preaching the gospel and saying that the kingdom of God is at hand...and Simon and Andrew are all in.

APPLICATION

Am I all in for Jesus? His call applies to me as well. He is asking me today to follow him afresh, to surrender all to him and let him lead. What is keeping me from fully following Jesus? I think it is holding on too tightly to my own plans as well as my disappointment over things that happened this past year. Why would I hold on to temporal things when Jesus invites me into the great adventure of following him?

PRAYER

Lord Jesus, thank you for calling me to follow you. I am leaving my net behind this very day to follow you. Forgive me for holding on to my own plans and the pain of my disappointment. I give you my plans and my sorrows. You want to make me a fisher of men, so I'm ready to follow you today in whatever you have for me.

Jesus, we praise You for being a God of transformation and healing. Through Your power, we are made new. Let us break free from our own conceptions and earthly rules to accept the free gift of salvation. We pray for great faith and the ability to seek You over our own selfish desires. Help us fix our eyes on You and not the approval of man.

PRAYER

PRAYING TOGETHER

Jesus, we praise You for freeing us from the law so we may now live under grace. Guide us by Your Spirit to focus on the substance of our faith, not getting entangled in legalistic practices. May our worship and faith be rooted in the grace and truth found in You, Jesus, allowing us to walk in the freedom and fullness of Your love.
