

chapter a day

365-day guide and journal

This book was written and organized by Greg St. Cyr.

So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed him, “If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.” John 8:31-32

In the morning, O Lord, You will hear my voice; In the morning I will order my prayer to You and eagerly watch. Psalm 5:3

Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end of the ages has come. 1 Corinthians 10:11

A WORD ABOUT VOLUME 7

Dear Reader,

One of my daily practices is what is called the morning watch. Not everyone is a morning person. What is important is to give God time when we are at our best and most alert. I have found wonderful advantages by starting my day with the Lord, surrendering myself afresh, praying for loved ones, friends, ministry opportunities, my day's activities, and having my mind renewed before tackling the responsibilities of the day.

David declares in Psalm 5:3, In the morning, O Lord, You will hear my voice; In the morning I will order my prayer to You and eagerly watch.

The term “morning watch” was part of the Student Volunteer Movement in the early 20th century as “a dedicated practice observed daily by members where they spend time in personal devotion, prayer and Bible study early in the morning.” This commitment aims to foster a deep spiritual connection with Jesus. Remember, the motivation for spending daily time with the Lord (whether morning, midday or evening) is not duty. Our motivation is the Gospel of grace which gives us the desire for fellowship with God.

In the words of Andrew Murray:

“It is for fellowship with God that we were created in God’s likeness. That alone can fit us for a true and blessed life. To have more of God, to know Him better, to receive from Him the communication of His love and strength, to have our life filled with His - it is for this He invites us to enter the inner chamber and shut the door... It is in the morning watch where it is to be decided every day whether God is to have all. If we truly conquer there, getting rid of ourselves into the hands of our Almighty Lord, the victory during the day is sure.”

We are on a journey to become more like Jesus. This is life’s highest priority, and one that we must be called back to time and time again. God’s design for us is that we would learn from our teacher, Jesus, and grow in Christlikeness. That goal demands the daily, spiritual habit of spending time with God in prayer and His Word.

Life is full of daily choices. Yet God will never give us a schedule that is too busy for time with Him. By committing to read a chapter a day (and you can always do more!), you will be training yourself to be like Jesus.

A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. Luke 6:40

You hold in your hands Volume 7 of Chapter A Day, which grows out of a prayerful burden that we would become disciples who make disciples.

A disciple is one who follows Jesus, is being changed by Jesus, and is on mission with Jesus.

The first person we are to disciple is ourselves. We – by God's grace – are responsible for a lifestyle of habits and practices that allow Jesus to change us into His likeness. The first people we are to disciple beyond ourselves are those in our families. For married couples, each other. For parents, your children. For singles, other family members. After that we disciple specific individuals the Lord has called us to invest in.

You will find these three icons on each page which represent our definition of a disciple. As the Spirit speaks to you through His Word, select the icon that reflects what He is saying by either circling, coloring in, or engaging with it in another way.

Our travels will take us chronologically through the Old Testament and then straight through from the Gospel of Matthew to Revelations. When beginning a book, especially one that you are not familiar with, I encourage you to watch the Bible Project overview of the book on YouTube.

Other resources that I have found helpful are

- Warren Wiersbe's, With the Word: The Chapter by Chapter Bible Handbook
- Henrietta Mear's classic, What The Bible Is All About
- Warren Wiersbe's two volume commentary on the Bible.

And finally, if you fall behind in your reading, simply pick up where you left off. Someone once said, "Sow an action, reap a habit. Sow a habit, reap a character. Sow a character, reap a destiny." May the habit of reading a chapter a day reap the life God destined you for!

It is my prayer that you will join me in the morning watch, making time with Him your highest priority in life. May God shower His grace on you as you commit yourself this year to "A Chapter A Day for the rest of your life."

From here to the nations,

Greg St. Cyr
LEAD PASTOR

We are changed by Jesus as we reflect upon God's Word and receive what He is saying to us, and then respond in faith and obedience. Disciples grow by continually receiving and responding to the Lord.

In your Chapter A Day guide, you will find a simple structure that will help you become a self-feeder as you receive and respond. The structure has been adapted from Wayne Cordeiro's book The Divine Mentor and is called the SOAP Devotional Method.

SOAP Devotional Method

SCRIPTURE

Write out one verse from the chapter that spoke to you.

OBSERVATION (RECEIVE)

Observe carefully what the verse says. Ponder the context, setting, its meaning, tone and purpose. Write down a few sentences or a paragraph. And most importantly, answer the question, “What is God saying to me?”

APPLICATION (RESPOND)

How does this verse apply to my life?

What am I to do with what God is saying to me?

PRAYER

Finish your time in the Word with a personal prayer to God. It might be praise, confession, thanksgiving or intercession. Ask Him to help you apply what you have learned. Turn the page for further guidance on how to approach the prayer moment.

BECOMING MORE LIKE JESUS AS WE PRAY

BY KAMMI MCGINTY

CARE NETWORK &
MARRIAGE MINISTRY
DIRECTOR

In the last edition of Chapter A Day, we reduced the number of corporate prayers from one per day, to one per week. It was our hope that this would increase your commitment to pray for yourself, your neighbors and the nations. We will continue this convention this year to give you increased opportunity to grow in prayer.

As a church, we will continue to focus on discipleship and becoming more like Jesus. One of the nine essentials of discipleship is prayerful. Because Jesus prayed and did so in a way that prompted the disciples to ask Him to teach them how to pray, we will become more like Jesus as we learn to pray as He did. In response to the disciples' request to teach them how to pray, Jesus prayed what we call the Lord's Prayer today. There are multiple commentaries on the Lord's Prayer and various suggestions on how to pray with the Lord's Prayer as a guide. We encourage you to explore this on your own, remembering that no matter what style of prayer you adopt, God is looking at the heart.

Motive is more important than method. When I consider that, I see that motive is key in the Lord's prayer. If we are sincere about connecting with God in prayer, then we can begin with a focus on Him and let our hearts engage in worship for who He is and what He has done. When our hearts are motivated to worship God, we are changed, and our hearts begin to align to His will. We remember His goodness and trust Him for our needs (practical and spiritual), and we allow Him to search our hearts to release anything that is keeping us from connecting with Him, which enables us to trust Him to guide us in His way to advance His purposes in and through us.

Remember, prayer in its simplest form is conversation with God. It is having a conversation with our Abba, Father where we spend time with Him sharing what is on our hearts and listening to what He is saying to us.

It is so much more than just coming to Him with a list of needs or wants. It is sitting with Him and enjoying Him as He works through His Word by the Spirit to heal us, to change us, to convict us and to refine us into the image of Jesus.

The more we seek God in prayer, with a heart motivated out of love to worship Him, the more we yield to His will to become like Jesus. I encourage you to take time daily to sit and talk with God, meditating on His character so You see more of His glory and are transformed into His likeness.

chapter a day

365-day guide and journal

HOW TO USE THIS JOURNAL

Here are a few helpful suggestions on how to use your journal most effectively.

1. Set aside a specific time and quiet place to meet with God.

You will need your Bible, this journal and a pen.

2. Receive and Respond using the SOAP method.

Read each day's Bible chapter. Write down the specific Scripture through which God is speaking to you. Receive by reflecting on that verse, asking, "What is God saying to me?" Respond by writing down your application, asking, "What is God asking me to do?"

3. Select an icon.

It is your choice to engage with this step or not. From your receive and respond time, consider which of the icons (what part of our definition of a disciple) reflects what the Spirit is saying to you. Then, mark that icon in some way.

4. Pray spontaneously.

End your time with prayer. Talk to the Lord like you would a friend. Praise Him for His goodness, thank Him for things, and ask Him for that which is on your heart. You can keep a list of those for whom you're praying in the back of this journal.

Genesis 1 →

DATE 1/1/25

SCRIPTURE

So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. Genesis 1:27

OBSERVATION

God created humankind in His own image. He distinguishes the sexes in creating male and female. As image bearers, we are unlike all other created beings. To be created in His image means we have personality, morality and spirituality. We are relational beings capable of rendering moral decisions, made for a spiritual relationship with God.

APPLICATION

All people, regardless of race, gender, nationality, background have worth. Every person is to be treated with dignity and love. I have personal preferences for people I like and negative biases towards others I dislike. Yet every person is to be loved and respected by me as one who is created in God's image.

PRAYER

Lord, forgive me for seeing through earthly eyes instead of heavenly. You love every person and desire for all people to enter a spiritual relationship with You. Forgive me for my negative and judgmental attitude toward those from different backgrounds and cultures.

We thank You, Lord, for the gift of your Holy Spirit within us, through whom we have communion with You, as the Holy Spirit teaches us, guides us, comforts us, convicts us and reminds us of all You have taught us. We pray as a church, that we would be a bold witness for You by the power of Your Word.
