What You Do

 - After each line, point to the kids and prompt them to say: 'God is always with me!' in their best lion voice!
 - NOTE: If this activity gets too noisy, prompt the kids to be quiet lions, sleepy lions, or sneaky lions to keep things fun and help with volume control.
4. Continue until all of the story points have been read.

Make It Personal -> Tell the kids about an age-appropriate time when you felt alone—maybe you moved to a new town or started a new job. How did you remind yourself that God was with you? Share how knowing God was with you brought you peace, and share your habits for talking with God!

What You Say

"Let's give one last lion roar to celebrate what God did for Daniel!"

- Invite responses

"Now, let's think about this: Daniel was no superhero. He was just a person, like you and me! But Daniel knew God. He made a habit of talking to God everyday, so when tough things happened, he already knew who to trust: a good, strong, powerful God!"

"There are going to be times we don't feel like God is with us. Maybe you feel nervous or unsure about a new school, or a kid is being mean to you at recess. But here's the truth: when you choose to follow Jesus, God sends the Holy Spirit to live in you. So God is with you—ALWAYS! No matter what happens, God goes with you. Always remember, God is always with you!"

What You Need

- ☐ Flashlight
- ☐ White paper or butcher paper
- ☐ Floor tape
- ☐ "Shadow Puppets" Activity Page

Inclusive Pro Tips

Allow kids to observe you from a quiet space if the shadow puppets are overstimulating.

What You Do

1. Before you begin:
 - Tape a large piece of white craft paper or butcher paper to the wall or floor.
 - Optional: If you are able, slightly dim the lights in your group area.
2. Turn on a flashlight and hold it toward the paper.
3. Use the "Shadow Puppets" Activity Page to make a shadow puppet on the paper.
4. Ask, "What do you see?"
5. Allow the kids to take turns using the flashlight and their hands to create fun shadows on the paper.
6. Explain how shadows are made.
 - a. A shadow is made when your body blocks the light.
7. Continue creating shadow puppets and invite the kids to guess what they see.

Talk Together:

1. Ask, "Was your shadow ever gone while we played with the flashlight?"
 - Guide the kids to realize that their shadow never leaves.
2. Ask: "In real life, are there days and times when you can't see your shadow?"
 - Guide the kids to realize that on days that aren't sunny, it's hard to see your shadow. And you can't see your shadow at night.
3. Ask, "Can you see God like you see your shadow?"
 - Pause for answers. Gently explain that even though we can't see God like we can see our shadow, we can still trust that He's always with us. He is always with us—even on days when it's not sunny, and even at night! He is with us everywhere, even more than our shadow is!
4. Ask: "When do you feel alone or nervous?"
 - Kids might say at bedtime, at a new school, or when someone is mean to them. Remind kids that even in those moments, God is still with them!

What You Need

- ☐ Flashlight
- ☐ White paper or butcher paper
- ☐ Floor tape
- ☐ "Shadow Puppets" Activity Page

Inclusive Pro Tips

Allow kids to observe you from a quiet space if the shadow puppets are overstimulating.

What You Say

"That was fun! When there is light and when it's sunny, your shadow is right there with you! And God is with you even more than your shadow is! He is with you on days that aren't sunny and at night too!"

"God is with you all the time—like, no matter what! You may not see Him with your eyes, but when you choose to believe in Jesus, you never go through anything alone. Whether you're feeling happy, nervous, left out, or even afraid, God is close. He never leaves you, not even for a second!"

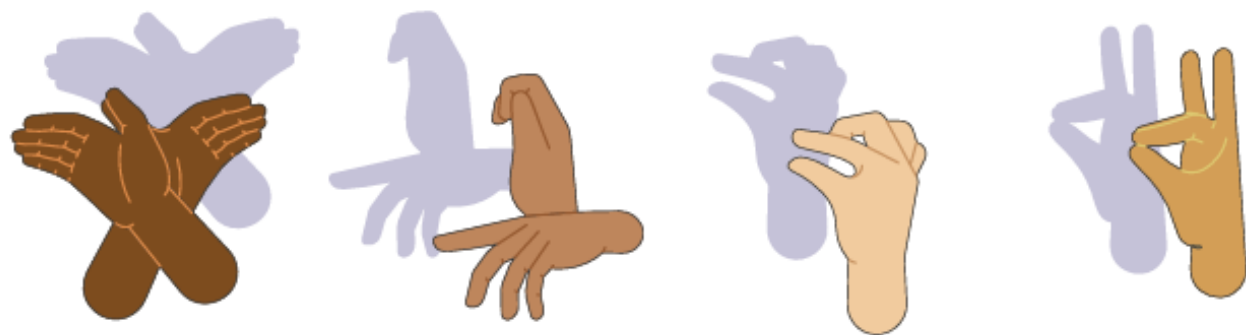

"God was with Daniel in the lions' den the whole time. Because Daniel trusted God and made a habit of talking to God every day, he was confident he wasn't alone in that lions' den."

"Sometimes it's hard to remember that God is with us all of the time. But it will help us remember He is with us if we talk to Him!"

"What are some ways you can make time to talk to God every day? (INVITE RESPONSES, LIKE: PRAYING BEFORE RESPONDING TO A FRIEND, TALKING TO GOD BEFORE STARTING THE DAY, OR INVITING GOD INTO MOMENTS WHEN YOU FEEL ALONE.)"

Even when you don't feel like God is with you, you can remind yourself of how God has helped you in the past. That can help you see that God has ~~never left you, even when~~ you didn't feel like He was close.

"Friends, God is so big He shut the mouths of lions—AND He loves you so much He wants to stay close to you every moment of every single day! So next time you see your shadow, remember: God is always with me!"

What You Need

- ☐ Bible marked at Isaiah 40:31
- ☐ Print "Isaiah 40:31 Pictures" Activity Pages

Inclusive Pro Tips

Instead of racing to finish, help the teams talk and discuss the order of the cards as they say the verse together.

①

What You Do

1. Select a kid to open the Bible to Isaiah 40:31.
2. Read the verse aloud, then lead the group to repeat it together.
3. Review any words that might be unfamiliar to the kids.
4. Divide the kids into two teams.
5. Direct each team to sit in a circle.
6. Give each team a mixed-up set of the "Isaiah 40:31 Pictures" Activity

Pages.

Play Together:

1. Say: "Your team will work together to figure out the correct order of the pictures based on Isaiah 40:31. Once you're finished, raise your hands!"
2. If the kids need assistance, point out the numbers on the cards.
3. Check their picture order.
4. Repeat the verse together as a group, encouraging a kid from each team to point to the picture that illustrates that part of the verse as you go along.
5. Play another round if time allows.
6. Gather everyone to discuss.

②

What You Say

"I love this verse from the book of Isaiah! Have you ever seen a video of an eagle flying? Eagles can flap their wings, but most of the time, they soar! They spread their wings wide and let the wind carry them higher and higher without even flapping. That's how God made them, to soar on the wind.

"God designed eagles to soar, and He designed YOU to trust Him so you can soar through life too.

"Trusting God means, when you're tired, remembering, 'Oh, God can do that!' It means when you need help, remembering, 'God will help me get through that!' Trusting God means giving God the weight so you can soar like an eagle! Trusting God is letting yourself be carried by God's strength, like an eagle rides the wind!

"And that trust in God gives you strength! It's not just physical strength like lifting something heavy. It's strength in your heart and mind—like the courage to do what's right, the willingness to forgive, or the confidence to speak up.

"So when you feel nervous at school, or when your feelings are hurt, or when it's hard to do what's right, remember this promise: God is always with you. Trust Him and let His strength carry you through whatever you are facing!"

①

What You Do

1. Gather the kids together in a circle.
2. Say, "Talking to God is one of the most powerful things you can do. You are talking to the King of the universe who is your friend. Prayer doesn't need to be fancy or perfect. It's just you being open and honest with God, because He already knows you and loves you!"
3. Say, "You don't have to be a grown-up or know everything to talk to God. You can pray out loud or quietly. However, you pray, trust that God is listening—and God is always with you!"
4. Invite a kid to pray aloud for the group with confidence, as they remember God is always with them!
5. Close in prayer.

②

Prayer

"God, You are an awesome, loving, powerful God. There is no one greater than You! Teach us how to live knowing that You are always with us. Help us remember how You've helped us in the past, and how You shut the mouths of lions for Your friend Daniel. Help us to keep trusting You, and put all our confidence in You. We love You, and we pray these things in Jesus' name. Amen."

Transition → As adults arrive to pick up, encourage kids to show off their shadow puppet skills and share that every time they see their shadow, they can remember: God is always with you.

Inclusive Pro Tips

Allow the kids to pray silently if that works best for your group.
